

PROSPECTS FOR FRUIT HARVEST HERE ARE POOR

"The peaches are the cleanest, the apples the scabbiest and the cherries the thinnest in years." That was the way Harvey Raffensperger, president of the Adams County Fruit Growers Association, summed up the reports of growers on the fruit situation Tuesday evening at a growers' session at Biglerville. The summation was "slightly exaggerated," he admitted, but relatively true.

At a rough estimate the 1948 apple crop will probably be around 1,500,000 bushels in Adams county. The reports made by the growers present indicated that the crop will be about the same, or slightly less, than the 1945 production. President Raffensperger said that year's apple production was estimated at between 1,500,000 to 1,800,000 bushels.

Many Problems
Beset with about every problem that can face a fruit grower in any one year the orchardists and State College specialists who spoke to them gave way to exaggeration on several occasions. John O. Pepper, extension entomologist, rising to speak after Dr. R. S. Kirby, plant pathologist had completed a survey of the gloomy picture in regard to disease, commented "Let's let the bugs have what the diseases haven't got and forget about fruit for the present year." He rapidly made it clear that the situation is not quite that bad, but highlighted the general woe that has marked the fruit season this year.

Rain and more rain has been a principal cause in permitting the insect and disease situation to reach record heights this summer. As a result of a number of conditions, Pepper said, "things have piled up so that in some cases it is beyond the ability of some fungicides to take care of the diseases."

Small Cherry Crop
Something less than half a normal cherry crop was estimated by the growers. A number said they would have about "half a crop," while other reports varied down as low as 10 (Please Turn to Page 5)

Traitor Gets Life; Is Fined

Boston, June 30 (AP)—Robert H. Best, the American newspaperman and radio propagandist for the German Nazis for $200 a month, was sentenced today to life imprisonment for treason.

The sentence was imposed by Federal Judge Francis J. W. Ford who also ordered Best to pay a fine of $10,000.

Judge Ford imposed the sentence after hearing T. Vincent Quinn, assistant Attorney General of the United States, appeal for imposition of the death penalty.

Best's counsel, Charles W. Bartlett, asked the court for leniency on the ground that Best was "a fanatic, a crusader—doing what he thought best for his country."

STUDY UPPER ADAMS SYSTEM

The Upper Adams school system apparently is being used as a model for other joint systems in the state.

Representatives of four school boards in Allegheny county, and George W. Casser, an assistant superintendent of schools for the county, visited the Upper Adams system Tuesday afternoon, meeting with Supervising Principal Leslie V. Stock and Adams County Assistant Superintendent of Schools Charles I. Raffensperger at the Biglerville high school.

There they went over the manner in which the Upper Adams set up its transportation program and discussed other features of the joint system. The four boards plus another board are scheduled to set up a joint system in the northern part of Allegheny county.

The men said they had been advised to visit the Upper Adams system and study its set-up by the state Department of Public Instruction when they went seeking information and more details about jointures.

Judge and Mrs. W. C. Sheely are at Atlantic City where they are attending the sessions of the Pennsylvania Bar Association convention.

SHOWERS HELP TO BREAK HEAT WAVE TUESDAY

Tuesday was hot, but the temperature failed to break any records for the day. The official recording in Gettysburg was 96 degrees, but on June 29, 1920, the mercury went to 97 degrees, and on the same date in 1934, it rose to a searing high of 101 degrees.

Thundershowers relieved both the heat and the humidity somewhat today. Rain fell in torrents at Cash-town and in the Arendtsville section Tuesday night. The mercury dropped to 68 degrees after the storm.

Tuesday marked the third day in a row of temperatures in excess of 90. On Sunday the thermometer went to 92 and was up to 93 on Monday.

Tuesday's heat caused a buckle in the Gettysburg-Harrisburg road just north of town late in the afternoon. Approximately 20 highway workers were sent to the scene immediately and repaired the road in about an hour and a half.

More thundershowers were forecast for this afternoon or tonight, to be followed by cooler weather and less humidity tonight and Thursday.

Cold Front Looms
(By The Associated Press)
A slow moving cold front traveled eastward from the Ohio valley today to sabotage the heat wave in Pennsylvania.

The Weather Bureau characterized the cold front as "weak," but promises it would knock down both temperatures and humidity by tomorrow.

Philadelphians, still groggy from their bout yesterday with the hottest day since July, 1946, were promised nothing hotter than 90 degrees today with the humidity slightly lower. The mercury's journey yesterday ended at a 95.

In Harrisburg the temperature dropped from a high of 97 yesterday down to 69 during the night. Pittsburgh had a 66-degree low during the night after a thunderstorm tumbled the mercury from 90 and ended a three-day blast of heat and humidity.

125 Persons Attend 4-H Camp-Picnic

One hundred and twenty-five members of county 4-H clubs attended the annual camp-picnic held for the clubs at Caledonia Tuesday. Rain during part of the day forced most of the activities to be held under shelters. R. S. Kirby, State College specialist, conducted the group on nature tours while C. P. Lange, State College, was in charge of recreation. Supper was served by the Senior Extension club. Girls present for the session made green and white gimp bracelets under the direction of Miss Mary Jane Mickey while the men learned new knots under direction of Assistant County Agent Ira N. Dummire. Dianne Baird, Hunterstown, was the "spirit of club work" in a 4-H candle light program held at the conclusion of the all-day affair.

Here And There News Collected At Random

An "exasperated citizen," one of the very many who have written or voiced complaint against unnecessary noises in town during recent weeks, evidently has reached the saturation point, and rightly so.

Few communities within our knowledge are forced to contend with such rowdiness, boisterousness and uncalled for disturbances such as are demonstrated here nearly every night.

The most recent complaint follows:

"You asked Gettysburg citizens in a recent article whether they were bothered with undue noise at night. I think I'd like to answer that. There are noise spots in various parts of the town and most of them could be corrected if the suffering citizens would put the spot-light of publicity on them and ask that something be done.

"One of the worst offenders is the Greyhound Post House, as you have mentioned in your columns before. It could not possibly be in a worse location. The clogging of traffic in a narrow street, and its attendant noises make nerve-racking nights for citizens who need their rest.

"Stay up some night and walk down North Washington street late and see how you like the fumes from three or four buses lined along the street with motors racing madly; automobiles blaring to get past; the juke box tuned to its loudest pitch and competing with the raucous announcing system that may be heard for a block.

"Walk down the alley and hear the noise that comes from the small sounding box of the Greyhound kitchen, the crashing dishes and pans, the loud laughter and shouting and the unnecessary clatter of garbage cans in a public alley from midnight to dawn.

"On Saturday nights particularly small groups with bottles hang around the alleys and entertain themselves until the bottles are empty and shattered, along with the nervous systems of dozens of would-be sleepers in hotels, apartments (Please turn to Page 6)

Old Barrage Balloon Over Berlin Throws False Scare

Berlin, June 30 (AP)—One tired old barrage balloon raised a false scare today that the Russians were putting up a new obstacle to the aerial food ferry route into Soviet-blockaded Berlin.

Excited U. S. Air Force officials, suspecting a threat to the air lifeline to Berlin, found a supposed mass of obstacles was just an old balloon that has flown a long time in the corridor between Berlin and the British zone.

The false report, presumably based on information from pilots, first came from Frankfurt and was quickly questioned by American air authorities here.

Pilots already had been warned to fly above the 5,000-foot level of the supposed obstacles.

Barrage balloons were flown on cables during the war to divert enemy planes from primary targets, particularly over Britain's tightly-spaced war industry areas and heavily populated cities such as London.

FFA STUDENTS RETURN FROM FLORIDA TRIP

Biglerville high school's senior FFA students have returned from a 3,100-mile trip, financed by the boys' own activities during the past four years. During the course of the visit they toured the eastern United States from Biglerville to Miami, Fla., and return, taking 11 days for the trip.

The senior members of the Apple City FFA, Robert Smyers, Sherrill Guise, Ralph Culp, Clifford Rice, William Welker, Kenneth Taylor, James Heller and Rene Black, accompanied by their agriculture teacher, Cecil R. Snyder and guest, Arthur Gordon, head of the social studies department, started their trip by traveling along the Skyline drive. They visited the Natural Bridge at night and then visited Luray caverns, Roanoke, Norris Dam and the Great Smoky Mountain National Park were other points visited. From Chattanooga they visited by cable car Lookout Mountain and then traveled by way of Atlanta to the Port Valley peach section of Georgia.

Visit Peach Orchards

There the local farm youths visited the Georgia orchards and observed the picking of Late Hiley peaches and learned that the Georgia growers were about ready to pick Ebertas. After a visit to Silver Springs, Fla., where they viewed lake life through glass bottomed boats, they visited Winterhaven, where they were taken on a tour of a cooperative citrus packing house and juice plant. Their guide was Michael Johnson, federal fruit inspector who frequently acts in that capacity in the upper part of Adams county during the fruit season here. At the citrus packing plant they were presented with all the orange juice the could drink and two cases of orange juice and three bushels of oranges to take with them.

After visiting the Cypress Gardens and Bok tower they found while driving through the once dread swamps that the Everglades are being tamed by draining. About half the upper part of the Everglades has already been drained and is being farmed, they found. Other sections of the Everglades are also being drained the students discovered.

Old Barrage Balloon Over Berlin Throws False Scare

Germany took a dig at the western Allies' emergency air freight service into Berlin. Some westerners feared it might portend a Russian attempt to restrict use of the air corridor food lifeline.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, the Russian commander in Germany, cautioned last night that he hoped flying regulations would be "faithfully followed." Some thought that also might have been a hint of forthcoming efforts to shut off the last food lifeline to the more than 2,000,000 Germans in the western sectors of Berlin.

In last night's statement, however, Marshal Sokolovsky said he hoped that train service from the west into Berlin could be resumed before the city's food stocks run out.

Commenting on that statement this morning, Col. Frank L. Howley, the U. S. commandant of Berlin, had this to say:

"If the Russians want to lift the blockade, that will be fine, but we will wait for deeds rather than words."

Bear Chews Arm Off Boy, 12

Peoria, Ill., June 30 (AP)—Twelve year old Johnny Dickerson climbed a three-foot fence to get closer to the cage of two bears in the city's zoo at Glen Oaks park yesterday.

He stood near the cage and fed grapes to "Tuffy," a 250-pound male Himalayan bear, through the bars. Its mate, "Babe," also was in the cage.

Suddenly, "Tuffy" seized Johnny and pulled him against the bars of the cage and clawed at his left arm. As he screamed, A. B. Fades, a concessionaire in the park, grabbed a cane from an elderly man. He jumped the fence and thrust the cane into the bear's mouth, forcing it to release its hold on Dickerson.

Dickerson's left arm was chewed off above the elbow. The remainder of the arm was amputated at the shoulder after the boy was taken to a hospital.

The two bears, Zookeeper Dick Houlihan said, had been considered tame.

URGE GROWERS TO INVEST IN NEW FRUIT LAB

Adams county fruit growers were urged Tuesday night, at a meeting in Biglerville, to invest in the $30,000 bond issue being floated to pay for the new fruit laboratory in Arendtsville.

The bonds sell for $500 apiece, the growers were told by Harvey Raffensperger, president of the Association and those planning to buy bonds can send their checks to Raffensperger or to Robert Lott.

Rent paid by State college over a period of years for the use of the new laboratory will pay off the bonds which pay three per cent interest, Raffensperger said.

County Agent M. T. Hartman joined in urging the growers to "set an example for fruit growers in York, Franklin and Cumberland counties by being foremost in the purchase of these bonds. It is not as if you were being asked to make a donation. These bonds are an investment. There is no danger they will not be paid off."

4-County Project

To obtain bonds at par orders must be placed today.

The laboratory is being set up by a joint organization of fruit growers from Adams, Franklin, Cumberland and York counties and the bonds will be sold in all four counties. Raffensperger said "We hope to sell all of these bonds to fruit growers, since they are the most interested."

For the new laboratory the group purchased two farms in Arendtsville and now has 16 acres of land in addition to a house and several out-buildings for use by the State college scientists. Present plans call for construction of a greenhouse and other buildings and conversion of the house into laboratories. It is being used as such at present by the research officials, but much work remains until it is in perfect shape, growers pointed out.

Previously the scientists had to conduct their experiments on blocks (Please turn to Page 4)

RIPLEY WRITES FOR DATA HERE

The following letter was received today by Burgess C. A. Helges from Cygna Corly, secretary of Ripley's Believe It Or Not, Inc.

"The following information has recently come to Mr. Ripley's attention and he is interested in using it in his 'Believe It Or Not' cartoon feature:

"Mr. George Washington White, born in Adams county on Washington's birthday in 1862, lived in Adams county and died on Washington's birthday in 1948."

"Do you know if this is true, and can you please tell us the name of the town of which he was a resident and also where we might obtain a photo or snapshot of him for use in the cartoon feature?"

Story Was in "Times"
The letter was turned over to The Gettysburg Times, whose files show that George Washington White, Mt. Joy township, near Littlestown, died last February 22, his 76th birthday. Funeral services were held February 25, in York, the Rev. John C. Brumback, Littlestown, officiating, and burial was in Krentz cemetery, near York.

Mr. Washington was born at Hallam, York county, son of Franklin and Emma Darone White. At the time of his death he was survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Harry Zeigler, Mt. Joy township; three grandsons; one great-grandson; one brother, Charles and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Blessing, both of York.

The French were in the ascendancy in the period of which the story is written, and were aided by the Indians, who made many attacks on the border settlements. The story deals with the capture by the Indians of eight-year-old Regina Hartman, after the slaying of other members of her family, and of Susan, a neighbor's baby. Mrs. Hartman and Regina's younger brother escaped. They had gone to the mill and were not at home when the raid took place.

Prisoners Are Rescued
Regina's lot for the ensuing eight years was not a happy one. She was forced to work hard for the squaw who had charge of her. Then the English, under Colonel Bouquet, defeated the French and ordered the Indians to release all their prisoners.

Word was sent to parents and relatives. Two groups converged on Carlisle, the freed prisoners, and the relatives eager to find their lost ones.

Regina had been forbidden to speak the English language, but remembered the words of an old hymn, "Alone, Yet Not Alone," which she frequently sang.

As the captives were assembled in the square at Carlisle parents and relatives went up and down the lines, searching for lost children and others. Mrs. Hartman was unable to recognize Regina, and the child just shook her head, not knowing any one, or recognizing her mother.

Girl May Be Relative
"Isn't there anything you can do or say to recall her former life to her?" Col. Bouquet asked. Mrs. Hartman remembered the old hymn and began to sing it. Regina heard and memory returned. Mother and daughter were reunited.

Regina Lochbaum, York Springs, who plays the part of one of the school girls in the pageant, says she was told by her grandmother that her grandmother's grandmother was named Regina Hartman.

The pageant will open with a scene depicting a modern school room and the girls will pick up their books and begin reading the story of Regina Hartman. Pantomime, dances, dialogue and songs will be interspersed in the story.

Following a wedding trip of un-announced destination the couple will reside in a newly furnished apartment in Littlestown.

The bride attended Gettysburg high school and is now employed at Reese's Peanut Buttercup factory, Hershey. Mr. Bechtel, who attended Hershey schools, is employed at the Army depot at New Cumberland.

Traitor Gets Life; Is Fined

Boston, June 30 (AP)—Robert H. Best, the American newspaperman and radio propagandist for the German Nazis for $200 a month, was sentenced today to life imprisonment for treason.

The sentence was imposed by Federal Judge Francis J. W. Ford who also ordered Best to pay a fine of $10,000.

Judge Ford imposed the sentence after hearing T. Vincent Quinn, assistant Attorney General of the United States, appeal for imposition of the death penalty.

Best's counsel, Charles W. Bartlett, asked the court for leniency on the ground that Best was "a fanatic, a crusader—doing what he thought best for his country."

STUDY UPPER ADAMS SYSTEM

The Upper Adams school system apparently is being used as a model for other joint systems in the state.

Representatives of four school boards in Allegheny county, and George W. Cassler, an assistant superintendent of schools for the county, visited the Upper Adams system Tuesday afternoon, meeting with Supervising Principal Leslie V. Stock and Adams County Assistant Superintendent of Schools Charles I. Raffensperger at the Biglerville high school.

There they went over the manner in which the Upper Adams set up its transportation program and discussed other features of the joint system. The four boards plus another board are scheduled to set up a joint system in the northern part of Allegheny county.

The men said they had been advised to visit the Upper Adams system and study its set-up by the state Department of Public Instruction when they went seeking information and more details about jointures.

Judge and Mrs. W. C. Sheely are at Atlantic City where they are attending the sessions of the Pennsylvania Bar Association convention.

SHOWERS HELP TO BREAK HEAT WAVE TUESDAY

Tuesday was hot, but the temperature failed to break any records for the day. The official recording in Gettysburg was 96 degrees, but on June 29, 1920, the mercury went to 97 degrees, and on the same date in 1934, it rose to a searing high of 101 degrees.

Thundershowers relieved both the heat and the humidity somewhat today. Rain fell in torrents at Cash-town and in the Arendtsville section Tuesday night. The mercury dropped to 68 degrees after the storm.

Tuesday marked the third day in a row of temperatures in excess of 90. On Sunday the thermometer went to 92 and was up to 93 on Monday.

Tuesday's heat caused a buckle in the Gettysburg-Harrisburg road just north of town late in the afternoon. Approximately 20 highway workers were sent to the scene immediately and repaired the road in about an hour and a half.

More thundershowers were forecast for this afternoon or tonight, to be followed by cooler weather and less humidity tonight and Thursday.

Cold Front Looms

(By The Associated Press)
A slow moving cold front traveled eastward from the Ohio valley today to sabotage the heat wave in Pennsylvania.

The Weather Bureau characterized the cold front as "weak," but promises it would knock down both temperatures and humidity by tomorrow.

Philadelphians, still groggy from their bout yesterday with the hottest day since July, 1946, were promised nothing hotter than 90 degrees today with the humidity slightly lower. The mercury's journey yesterday ended at a 95.

In Harrisburg the temperature dropped from a high of 97 yesterday down to 69 during the night. Pittsburgh had a 66-degree low during the night after a thunderstorm tumbled the mercury from 90 and ended a three-day blast of heat and humidity.

125 Persons Attend 4-H Camp-Picnic

One hundred and twenty-five members of county 4-H clubs attended the annual camp-picnic held for the clubs at Caledonia Tuesday.

Rain during part of the day forced most of the activities to be held under shelters. R. S. Kirby, State College specialist, conducted the group on nature tours while C. P. Lange, State College, was in charge of recreation. Supper was served by the Senior Extension club. Girls present for the session made green and white gimp bracelets under the direction of Miss Mary Jane Mickey while the men learned new knots under direction of Assistant County Agent Ira N. Dunmire. Dianne Baird, Hunterstown, was the "spirit of club work" in a 4-H candle light program held at the conclusion of the all-day affair.

Loretta M. Diehl Is Married Monday

Earl Unger Marker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Marker, Taneytown, and Loretta May Diehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Diehl, 50 West Middle street, were married Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the rectory of St. Vincent's Catholic church, Hanover, by the Rev. Fr. J. Guy Gotwalt.

The couple had as their attendants, a half-brother and half-sister of the bridegroom, John and Ruth Pierce, Taneytown. The bridegroom, a Taneytown truck driver, served overseas with the army during World War II. The bride attended Gettysburg high school. The couple are residing with the bride's parents for the present.

Hospital Treats Two For Fractures

Mrs. Charles Bushman, 69, Gettysburg R. 3, was treated at the Warner hospital Tuesday for a fracture of her right wrist sustained in a fall.

George Punt, 16, Oortanna, suffered a fractured right foot while cutting wood and after receiving treatment was discharged.

TWO ARE FINED

Wayne Sowers, 27, of Gardners R. 1 and Roy Rice, 52, of Aspers, were each fined $10 and costs on disorderly conduct charges by Justice of the Peace Elton Myers, Idaville, state police of the Gettysburg sub-station, who served warrants on the two men Monday, said today.

The charges were the outgrowth of a fracas at Idaville Sunday night, police said.

LICENSED TO WED

Donald L. Tate and Ruby M. Barbour, both of Idaville, have secured a marriage license in Carlisle.

Here And There News Collected At Random

An "exasperated citizen," one of the very many who have written or voiced complaint against unnecessary noises in town during recent weeks, evidently has reached the saturation point, and rightly so.

Few communities within our knowledge are forced to contend with such rowdiness, boisterousness and uncalled for disturbances such as are demonstrated here nearly every night.

The most recent complaint follows:

"You asked Gettysburg citizens in a recent article whether they were bothered with undue noise at night. I think I'd like to answer that. There are noise spots in various parts of the town and most of them could be corrected if the suffering citizens would put the spot-light of publicity on them and ask that something be done.

"One of the worst offenders is the Greyhound Post House, as you have mentioned in your columns before. It could not possibly be in a worse location. The clogging of traffic in a narrow street, and its attendant noises make nerve-racking nights for citizens who need their rest.

"Stay up some night and walk down North Washington street late and see how you like the fumes from three or four buses lined along the street with motors racing madly; automobiles blating to get past; the juke box tuned to its loudest pitch and competing with the raucous announcing system that may be heard for a block.

"Walk down the alley and hear the noise that comes from the small sounding box of the Greyhound kitchen, the crashing dishes and pans, the loud laughter and shouting and the unnecessary clatter of garbage cans in a public alley from midnight to dawn.

"On Saturday nights particularly small groups with bottles hang around the alleys and entertain themselves until the bottles are empty and shattered, along with the nervous systems of dozens of would-be sleepers in hotels, apartments (Please turn to Page 6)

Old Barrage Balloon Over Berlin Throws False Scare

Berlin, June 30 (AP)—One tired old barrage balloon raised a false scare today that the Russians were putting up a new obstacle to the aerial food ferry route into Soviet-blockaded Berlin.

Excited U. S. Air Force officials, suspecting a threat to the air lifeline to Berlin, found a supposed mass of obstacles was just an old balloon that has flown a long time in the corridor between Berlin and the British zone.

The false report, presumably based on information from pilots, first came from Frankfurt and was quickly questioned by American air authorities here.

Pilots already had been warned to fly above the 5,000-foot level of the supposed obstacles.

Barrage balloons were flown on cables during the war to divert enemy planes from primary targets, particularly over Britain's tightly-spaced war industry areas and heavily populated cities such as London.

FFA STUDENTS RETURN FROM FLORIDA TRIP

Biglerville high school's senior FFA students have returned from a 3,100-mile trip, financed by the boys' own activities during the past four years. During the course of the visit they toured the eastern United States from Biglerville to Miami, Fla., and return, taking 11 days for the trip.

The senior members of the Apple City FFA, Robert Snycers, Sherril Guise, Ralph Culp, Clifford Rice, William Welker, Kenneth Taylor, James Heller and Rene Black, accompanied by their agriculture teacher, Cecil R. Snyder and guest, Arthur Gordon, head of the social studies department, started their trip by traveling along the Skyline Drive. They visited the Natural Bridge at night and then visited Luray caverns, Roanoke, Norris Dam and the Great Smoky Mountain National Park were other points visited.

From Chattanooga they visited by cable car Lookout Mountain and then traveled by way of Atlanta to the Fort Valley peach section of Georgia.

Visit Peach Orchards

There the local farm youths visited the Georgia orchards and observed the picking of Late Hiley peaches and learned that the Georgia growers were about ready to pick Elbertas. After a visit to Silver Springs, Fla., where they viewed lake life through glass bottomed boats, they visited Winterhaven, where they were taken on a tour of a cooperative citrus packing house and juice plant. Their guide was Michael Johnson, federal fruit inspector who frequently acts in that capacity in the upper part of Adams county during the fruit season here.

At the citrus packing plant they were presented with all the orange juice the could drink and two cases of orange juice and three bushels of oranges to take with them.

After visiting the Cypress Gardens and Bok tower they found while driving through the once dreary swamps that the Everglades are being tamed by draining. About half the upper part of the Everglades has already been drained and is being farmed, they found. Other sections of the Everglades are also being drained the students discovered.

Take Jungle Cruise

At Miami Marine Pepper, brother-in-law of Cecil Snyder, took the group on a tour of the city and on the jungle cruise near the city. The students found the city "the cleanest (Please turn to Page 6)

RIPLEY WRITES FOR DATA HERE

The following letter was received today by Bureess C. A. Helges from Cygna Corly, secretary of Ripley's Believe It Or Not, Inc.

"The following information has recently come to Mr. Ripley's attention and he is interested in using it in his 'Believe It Or Not' cartoon feature:

"Mr. George Washington White, born in Adams county on Washington's birthday in 1862, lived in Adams county and died on Washington's birthday in 1948."

"Do you know if this is true, and can you please tell us the name of the town of which he was a resident and also where we might obtain a photo or snapshot of him for use in the cartoon feature?"

Story Was in "Times"
The letter was turned over to The Gettysburg Times, whose files show that George Washington White, Mt. Joy township, near Littlestown, died last February 22, his 76th birthday. Funeral services were held February 25, in York, the Rev. John C. Brumbach, Littlestown, officiating, and burial was in Krentz cemetery, near York.

Mr. Washington was born at Hallam, York county, son of Franklin and Emma Darone White. At the time of his death he was survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Harry Zeigler, Mt. Joy township; three grandsons; one great-grandson; one brother, Charles and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Blessing, both of York.

Colonel William G. Weaver, Baltimore street, has returned from Fort Monroe, Va., where he has been on active duty for the past six months with the historical section, office, chief, Army Field Forces, Mrs. Weaver and daughter Patty returned with him.

Bear Chews Arm Off Boy, 12

Peoria, Ill., June 30 (AP)—Twelve year old Johnny Dickerson climbed a three-foot fence to get closer to the cage of two bears in the city's zoo at Glen Oaks park yesterday.

He stood near the cage and fed grapes to "Tuffy," a 250-pound male Himalayan bear, through the bars. Its mate, "Babe," also was in the cage.

Suddenly, "Tuffy" seized Johnny and pulled him against the bars of the cage and clawed at his left arm. As he screamed, A. B. Eades, a concessionaire in the park, grabbed a cane from an elderly man. He jumped the fence and thrust the cane into the bear's mouth, forcing it to release its hold on Dickerson.

Dickerson's left arm was chewed off above the elbow. The remainder of the arm was amputated at the shoulder after the boy was taken to a hospital.

The two bears, Zookeeper Dick Houlihan said, had been considered tame.

URGE GROWERS TO INVEST IN NEW FRUIT LAB

Adams county fruit growers were urged Tuesday night, at a meeting in Biglerville, to invest in the $30,000 bond issue being floated to pay for the new fruit laboratory in Arendtsville.

The bonds sell for $500 apiece, the growers were told by Harvey Raffensperger, president of the Association, and those planning to buy bonds can send their checks to Raffensperger or to Robert Lot.

Rent paid by State college over a period of years for the use of the new laboratory will pay off the bonds which pay three per cent interest, Raffensperger said.

County Agent M. T. Hartman joined in urging the growers to "set an example for fruit growers in York, Franklin and Cumberland counties by being foremost in the purchase of these bonds. It is not as if you were being asked to make a donation. These bonds are an investment. There is no danger they will not be paid off."

4-County Project

To obtain bonds at par orders must be placed today.

The laboratory is being set up by a joint organization of fruit growers from Adams, Franklin, Cumberland and York counties and the bonds will be sold in all four counties. Raffensperger said "We hope to sell all of these bonds to fruit growers, since they are the most interested."

For the new laboratory the group purchased two farms in Arendtsville and now has 16 acres of land in addition to a house and several out-buildings for use by the State college scientists. Present plans call for construction of a greenhouse and other buildings and conversion of the house into laboratories. It is being used as such at present by the research officials, but much work remains until it is in perfect shape, growers pointed out.

Previously the scientists had to conduct their experiments on blocks (Please Turn to Page 4)

The French were in the ascendancy in the period of which the story is written, and were aided by the Indians, who made many attacks on the border settlements. The story deals with the capture by the Indians of eight-year-old Regina Hartman, after the slaying of other members of her family, and of Susan, a neighbor's baby. Mrs. Hartman and Regina's younger brother escaped. They had gone to the mill and were not at home when the raid took place.

Prisoners Are Rescued

Regina's lot for the ensuing eight years was not a happy one. She was forced to work hard for the squaw who had charge of her. Then the English, under Colonel Bouquet, defeated the French and ordered the Indians to release all their prisoners.

Word was sent to parents and relatives. Two groups converged on Carlisle, the freed prisoners, and the relatives eager to find their lost ones.

Regina had been forbidden to speak the English language, but remembered the words of an old hymn, "Alone, Yet Not Alone," which she frequently sang.

As the captives were assembled in the square at Carlisle parents and relatives went up and down the lines, searching for lost children and others. Mrs. Hartman was unable to recognize Regina, and the child just shook her head, not knowing anyone, or recognizing her mother.

Girl May Be Relative

"Isn't that anything you can do or say to recall her former life to her?" Col. Bouquet asked. Mrs. Hartman remembered the old hymn and began to sing it. Regina heard and memory returned. Mother and daughter were reunited.

Regina Lochbaum, York Springs, who plays the part of one of the school girls in the pageant, says she was told by her grandmother that her grandmother's grandmother was named Regina Hartman.

The pageant will open with a scene depicting a modern school room and the girls will pick up their books and begin reading the story of Regina Hartman. Pantomime, dances, dialogue and songs will be interspersed in the story.

PROSPECTS OF RR SETTLEMENT SEEM BRIGHTER

Washington, June 30 (AP)—Prospects for settlement of the lengthy rail dispute brightened today as the White House stubbornly pressed for action from a face-to-face meeting between union and management officials.

The heads of the three rail unions asking higher wages were brought together with the carrier representatives yesterday by Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman.

A four-hour session brought no immediate results, but it was believed that a definite settlement plan was being considered. Asked about chances for final agreement, Steelman told a reporter:

"I am not sure, but tomorrow we'll try again."

The three unions—barred by court order from stalling the government-operated railroads—were represented by Alanby Johnston for the engineers, David B. Robertson for the firemen and engineers and Arthur J. Glover for the switchmen.

Refused Increase
The three brotherhoods had threatened to strike May 11 after refusing to accept a 15% cent hourly pay boost agreed to by 18 other rail unions.

They wanted that figure raised—to a point now reported to be 16 or 17 cents higher—and they also asked certain rules changes which would mean still more money for their members.

A strike was headed off when President Truman took over the lines and gave control to the army. The government also asked—and got—a restraining order to keep the workers at their jobs.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough is due to decide Thursday morning whether to block off a walk-out by a permanent injunction.

BRITAIN ENDS 31-YEAR RULE OF PALESTINE

Haifa, Israel, June 30 (AP)—The last British troops left the soil of troubled Palestine today, thus ending 31 years of British military occupation of the Holy Land.

In strict military order, the few remaining soldiers withdrew behind barbed wire barricades to troop ships and landing craft. British planes from an aircraft carrier task force buzzed overhead.

Lt. Gen. Gordon H. A. MacMillan, Britain's last military commander in Palestine, was the last British soldier to leave Palestine, in the evacuation which began on May 15.

He stepped aboard the ship's boat at 1:41 p. m., local time, just a few moments after the Union Jack was pulled down from the harbor office.

Col. Joseph Hoffman of Baltimore, Md., headed the group of United Nations truce observers who will supervise the big part during the U. N. truce period.

End Came Quietly
Trim guardsmen and green beretted marine commandos filed quietly aboard the ships, some moored to the same jetty where wailing Jewish refugees have been brought ashore in recent months for detention as illegal immigrants while Britain held the Palestine mandate.

The end of Britain's military rule came quietly, in strange contrast to the years of shooting and bombings.

In small groups, the marine commandos marched from their posts on Mount Carmel. Then they withdrew from the gates of the port until all that remained under British rule was a small barbed wire enclosure around the entrance of a landing ship through which filed the last British troops.

White-capped Jewish police took over the guard posts as the marines retired.

"It's a great day for us—one we've looked forward to for a long time," said Capt. Sucher Spiegel, who served in the British army's Jewish brigade during World War II and now is chief of Haifa port police.

Game Commission Given Vindication

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—The Dauphin county court ruled that the State Game Commission showed "proper discretion" in leasing a 15-acre tract in Cambria county for strip mining.

Judge J. Colvin Wright, of the Bedford county court, specially presiding, issued the ruling yesterday in dismissing an action brought by Alex C. Bailey, Phillipsburg; G. Ira Stott, William R. Taylor and Matt J. Belin, all of Smithmill.

The plaintiffs had contended that the commission lost $66,000 in royalties by leasing the 15 acres in Reade township to Robert A. Williams, of Ramey.

The plaintiffs said if the commission instead had accepted their bid on a 75-acre tract in Cambria county it would have realized a royalty of 42.6 cents on each ton of coal mined.

Harrisburg Gas Rates Increased

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—The Harrisburg Gas company today instituted a rate increase which will cost consumers an additional $54,277 a year.

The Public Utility Commission said in granting the rate boost that higher cost of labor and material had cut down the company's margin of profit on sales.

The increased rates will affect 1,361 of approximately 41,500 customers served with manufactured gas in Harrisburg and other Dauphin county communities and parts of Cumberland, York and Lancaster counties.

Will File Appeal In Sound Truck Case

Harrisburg, Pa., June 30 (AP)—Two state officials of the Progressive party were fined $50 each today on a charge of using a sound truck on Harrisburg's streets in violation of a city ordinance.

The Progressive party supports Henry Wallace.

Gerald Schafflander, Conyngham, the party's executive director, and Arthur Gare, York, public relations director, immediately posted $200 bond each for an appeal on constitutional grounds of free speech and the right of assembly.

Alderman Harry Bowman accepted the bond pending the appeal to Dauphin county court. A. Harry Levitan, Philadelphia, counsel for the Progressive party, said the case will be carried to the U. S. Supreme Court, if necessary.

Color In Streams Is Life Belt Dye

Harrisburg, Pa., June 30 (AP)—The state Health Department told Pennsylvanians today that if they spot odd colored water in streams not to be alarmed. Chances are, the department said, it is war surplus material.

The department said farmers have reported several instances of heavy discoloration of streams that turned out to be dye from life jacket markers. It was used during World War II in life rafts and life jackets to help locate missing fliers and service men.

"It is thought," the department added, "that the markers containing the dye are still attached to rafts which are sold as war surplus material and that persons who purchased the rafts disposed of the dye along the streams."

The department added the liquid is believed to be harmless.

Miners, Operators Are Near Accord

New York, June 30 (AP)—Contract talks between union miners and operators producing 85 per cent of the nation's hard coal are reported to have reached "a real negotiating stage."

The report came after a session yesterday—the first attended by John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers chieftain, since the talks began slightly more than a month ago.

UMW Vice President Thomas Kennedy said the discussions were "down to a real negotiating stage, especially on the important problems."

The talks continue today.

The present agreement covering the Pennsylvania anthracite mines expires July 10.

Major demands of the 80,000 miners involved are a $1 a day wage increase and improved welfare and pension fund provisions. Present wages were not given.

Former Newspaper Owners Indicted

New York, June 30 (AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted Eleanor Louise Patenotre, former owner of The Philadelphia Inquirer and her son, Raymond, charging attempted evasion of $2,000,000 in federal income taxes and failure to report a profit of more than $8,000,000 in the sale of the paper.

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohy said the indictment charges tax evasion on a net income of $8,769,108.27 and a tax liability of $2,183,347.68 in 1930. Mrs. Patenotre owned a controlling interest in the Inquirer, he said.

McGohey said that in 1930 Mrs. Patenotre reported an income of $28,282.16 on which she paid a tax of $1,567.31. On May 4, 1930, McGohy said, the Inquirer was sold in Montreal, Canada, for $10,500,000. He said the profit on the sale never was reported to the federal government.

BUCKY HARRIS SAYS YANKS TO TAKE PENNANT

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

Manager Bucky Harris of the New York Yankees put his neck in a noose today by predicting flatly his world champions would win the American league flag again.

This sudden burst of frankness on the part of the Yankee skipper might have been prompted by last night's 7-0 victory over the formidable Boston Red Sox.

A year ago yesterday the Yankees defeated Washington, 3-1, and went on to capture their next 18 games to make a shambles of the American league pennant race.

A season record Yankee Stadium crowd of 70,491 saw Ed Lopat hand-cut the Sox with three singles. Ted Williams got one of them to extend his consecutive hitting streak to 15 games. But his average dropped three points to .412.

The victory enabled the Yankees to move into second place, six percentage points ahead of the Philadelphia Athletics and only one game behind the front-running Cleveland Indians.

Feller Back In Form

Fireballer Bobby Feller gave a display of his old time form, pitching the Cleveland Indians to a 6-2 triumph over the Tigers in Detroit. Feller fanned eight and scattered eight hits in beating his old rival, Southpaw Hal Newhouse. The Indians shelled Prince Hal from the mound in the third, touching him up for seven hits and five runs.

Washington snapped the Athletics' seven-game winning streak, defeating Philadelphia 5-3, in a night game in Philadelphia. The victory boosted the Nats into fifth place, ahead of the Tigers.

The Chicago White Sox moved within two and a half games of the seventh place St. Louis Browns by defeating the Browns, 4-1, in another night game in St. Louis.

The first three teams in the National league had a bad day as Boston, St. Louis and Pittsburgh all went down to defeat. As a result, the fourth place New York Giants closed the gap between themselves and the top to three games.

Five Round Trips

The Giants poled five home runs out of Braves field to swamp Warren Spahn and the Braves, 11-3, in a night game in Boston. Sid Gordon paced the Giants' 17-hit attack with two home runs, one with the bases loaded. It was his third grand slam homer of the season, only one behind the record.

The Braves retained their first place lead of half a game over the St. Louis Cardinals as the Redbirds were whipped by the Cubs in Chicago, 3-1.

A pinch single by Howie Schultz in the 14th inning scored Ted Kluszewski from third with the run that gave the Reds a 6-5 victory over the Pirates in Cincinnati in the longest National league night game of the year.

A two-base miff of a fly ball by Centerfielder Carl Furillo paved the way for two Philadelphia runs which gave the Phils a 2-1 victory over the Dodgers in a night game in Brooklyn.

College Golfers Start Title Play

Palo Alto, Calif., June 30 (AP)—College golf had its 1948 national championship team decided today but 64 survivors of qualifying rounds were still ready to square off in the preliminary battles to determine the individual title.

The boys who made the grade from the original starting list of 141 paired off in the matches that will whittle down the field to the finalists Saturday when 51st singles will be crowned in a 36-hole links duel on the Stanford university course.

San Jose State college bagged the team title yesterday with a new national record total of 579 for the 36 holes of medal play. Morgan Fottrell, Jr., led the way, tying for individual medalist honors with a two-round 139.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Princeton, N. J., June 30 (AP)—Wyandotte, Mich., an industrial town near Detroit, also is a rowing town, and it Wyandotte's collection of high school kids should happen to win the Olympic crew trials here Bill Kreger probably would be elected to Congress.

Kreger, a big, soft-spoken man, is the Wyandotte boat club coach, a candidate for a congressional nomination and the guy who talked the city council into appropriating $1,200 to send the crew here.

"We don't get college oarsmen; most of our boys don't even go to college, but we have the best heavy crew we have had in 20 years," Bill explains.

All of them are products of two local high schools and the oldest is only 20.

"During the war we didn't have any older boys, so we concentrated on high school rowing," Kreger continues. "These kids have had from two to six years of experience and they're big (averaging five-foot-11 and 176 pounds). We may not beat Washington or Harvard, but we'll beat some of the crews here."

NASSAU NONSENSE

Eastern college athletic directors provided a big send-off Monday night for two of their retiring colleagues, Biff Jones of Army and Whitely Taylor of Navy.

Biff is going into business in Washington, Whitey to headquarters in the Pacific.

Artie Moher, Yale short-stop just signed by the Tigers, is one of the Ell baseballers who started there when Red Rolfe, now Detroit farm head, was Yale coach.

The Dodger's Bobby Bragan is tickled pink to get a job managing Fort Worth in a fast minor league instead of decorating the Brooklyn bench.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Hymie Caplin, who once retired trying to convert BlackJack Billy as a manager and went broke, is Fox into a heavyweight contender.

It probably saved each college that has a crew in the Olympic trials 1,000 bucks when the tryouts were moved here from Philadelphia. The athletes are quartered and fed on the campus instead of in expensive hotels.

Ky Elbright claims the real reason for the shift was that the mud in Philly's Schuylkill river got so bad that when a kid came out for rowing, they told him to try golf—in the same place.

Olympic Boxers
Go To West Point

Boston, June 30 (AP)—The eight members of the 1948 U. S. Olympic boxing team—the cream of many thousands of fistic-minded youngsters screened all over the world—and their alternates headed for the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., today for two weeks of final polishing before sailing for England.

The octet to survive through all of the final Olympic tryouts, which ended last night at the Boston Garden, was dominated by mid-westerners.

Half of the regulars who won berths on the glove team came from that section, two from Pennsylvania and one each from Florida and Utah.

Last night's successful finalists picked for the team were: Flyweight Frank Socca, 17-year-old Philadelphia national AAT titlist; bantamweight Bill Bossio, 20, of Pittsburgh and the U. S. Navy; Featherweight Edward Johnson, 20, of Kansas City and the U. S. Army; Lightweight Wallace Smith, 19, of Cincinnati; Welterweight Horace Herring, 24, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and the U. S. Navy; Middleweight Washington Jones, 22, of Lovejoy, Ill., and the U. S. Army; Light Heavyweight Charles Speizer, 18, of Detroit; Heavyweight Jay Lambert, 22, of West Jordan, Utah.

MATHIAS COMING EAST

Okla. City, June 30 (AP)—Bob Mathias, 17-year-old Tulsa, Calif., senior who won the Olympic Decathlon trials, will attend the University of Pennsylvania next fall.

The young athlete's grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Mathias, said here today that his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Mathias, had written her of this decision.

NEW HAGERSTOWN MANAGER

Hagerstown, June 30 (AP)—Benny Culp, former catcher-coach for the Philadelphia Phillies, took over the managerial duties for the Hagerstown Owls in the Class B Interstate league last night. Culp succeeds Gene Crumling who remains with the club as a player.

BERNIE THRUSH HANOVER COACH

Bernard Thrush, who coached at Biglerville high school from 1932 to 1938, has signed to coach the Hanover high school basketball team and to supervise the basketball program in the Hanover schools.

Thrush, who enjoyed great success in coaching at Biglerville, Shamokin, Lebanon and more recently at Camp Hill high school, succeeds Hal Reese who has been named athletic director at Hanover.

He was graduated from Lebanon Valley college in 1932 and his first coaching job was at Biglerville high school where he started in the fall of '32. His football and basketball teams at the Adams county school were among the best in the area.

For one year, 1938-39, he was head coach at Shamokin high school and then in the fall of 1939 he moved to Lebanon where his team won the State championship in 1939-40.

Thrush moved to Camp Hill in 1945.

Wilmington and Allentown, the number one and two teams in the Interstate league, split their doubleheader last night, Wilmington taking the seven-inning opener 7-6 and Allentown the nightcap 8-5.

The pace-setting Wilmington Blue Rocks scored three runs after two were out in the last inning of the first game to register the victory.

Allentown broke a 5-5 deadlock in the seventh frame of the nightcap with a run scored on three consecutive singles and added two more tallies in the eighth.

The third-place Trenton Giants were set back by the Lancaster Red Roses, 8-2, after Trenton had won six straight, including the first three of the four-game Lancaster series.

In the remaining game played last night, Harrisburg put together eight runs on 10 hits to defeat the last place Hagerstown Owls 8-4.

The Sunbury-York game was rained out.

Pick Favorites
In Wimbledon Finals

London, June 30 (AP)—Garnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., and Australia's John Bromwich are favored to win final berths in the Wimbledon tennis championships today but their slight favoritism is built on the frail structure of reputation.

Mulloy meets Bob Falkenburg, the rangy Hollywood, Calif., lad with the thunderbolt service. Bromwich opposes Hungarian Josef Asboth, who plays precision tennis on back court.

America's "big four" of women's tennis entered the semifinals of their division yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont, the defending champion, defeated Mrs. Jean Nicoll Boslock of Britain, 7-5, 6-3.

Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., defeated Mrs. Nellie Landry of France, 6-0, 6-2.

Mrs. Pat Canning Todd of La Jolla, Calif., ousted Jean Quertier of Britain, 6-2, 6-4.

Louis Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., won from Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, when Miss Fry turned an ankle after playing only four games.

First Round Starts In British Open

Muirfield, Scotland, June 30 (AP)—Jimmy Thomson, Los Angeles professional, and Frank Stranahan, Toledo amateur, led a contingent of nine American golfers into the first 18 holes of medal play today in the British open championship.

The close of the 36-hole qualifying round left 97 survivors for the final 72 holes of the tourney. Another 18 holes will be played tomorrow, after which the 40 low scorers advance into the final 36 holes Friday.

Thomson, the long-hitting California pro star who was born near Muirfield, was low for the American group. He shot a 75 yesterday, which gave him a 143 after his sparkling 68 of Monday.

Stranahan, who won the British amateur title recently and is aiming for a "little slam" in this meet, had a 70-75-145. He was runner-up in the British open in 1947.

Young And Old In Marquette Games

Milwaukee, June 30 (AP)—You're neither too young nor too old to compete in the national AAU track meet.

Entries for the 60th annual outdoor games Friday and Saturday at Marquette stadium range from veterans like Dave Albritton and Joe McCluskey to newcomers like Byrl Thompson, Oliver Matson and Gene Cole.

Matson, from San Francisco, and Cole, from Lancaster, O., are sprinters and quarter miles. Cole cracked the national interscholastic quarter mile record with a 48 seconds flat performance this spring, but Matson came along a few days ago with an amazing .471 as he finished second to Herb McKenley in his record-shattering .46 quarter.

Young Thompson is a college freshman who throws the discus. You haven't heard of him, maybe, because he happens to attend the University of Minnesota where Fortune Gordien also is in attendance.

Gordien, of course, has thrown the discus 178 feet 11½ inches for the year's best performance by a collegian. Thompson's not quite so good—his best is only 176 feet.

Huskies Picked To Win Olympic Trials

Princeton, N. J., June 30 (AP)—An east-west duel already is shaping up in the Olympic rowing trials although the races won't actually get underway until almost dusk today.

Backed by the knowledge that American college crews have won the Olympic eight-oared rowing title ever since Navy made the first effort in 1920 and that the last three Olympic champions have been Poughkeepsie regatta winners from the West Coast, most of the experts are picking the University of Washington.

The Huskies swept the river at Poughkeepsie last week and came here as the nation's only unbeaten varsity crew.

With eleven crews entered, representing nine colleges and two clubs, four trial heats were scheduled today. The winners will qualify for Friday's semi-finals and the losers will go into tomorrow's "Repechage" or second-trial heats. The repechage winners also will go into the semifinals, from which three crews will qualify for the final Saturday.

For the last two seasons, he was a star guard of the Philadelphia Warriors of the Basketball Association of America.

Dallmar said he would leave here in September for Pennsylvania, where he is to take over his new duties Sept. 15. He has been finishing up his work at Stanford toward a degree in the school of education.

The Braves retained their first place lead of half a game over the St. Louis Cardinals as the Redbirds were whipped by the Cubs in Chicago, 3-1.

A pinch single by Howie Schultz in the 14th inning scored Ted Kluszewski from third with the run that gave the Reds a 6-5 victory over the Pirates in Cincinnati in the longest National league night game of the year.

A two-base miff of a fly ball by Centerfielder Carl Furillo paved the way for two Philadelphia runs which gave the Phils a 2-1 victory over the Dodgers in a night game in Brooklyn.

Braves Bid High For John Antonelli

Boston, June 30 (AP)—The Boston Braves reported last night they had gone "unbelievably high with bonus money in outbidding eight other major league clubs" to sign John Antonelli, 17-year old left handed pitcher of Rochester, N. Y.

The youngster was signed at his home by tribal President Lou Perini, who is flying the boy and his father and brother here in the private Perini plane.

Braves General Manager John Quinn said the tribe had outbid the Boston Red Sox, New York Yankees, New York Giants, Cleveland Indians, Detroit Tigers, St. Louis Cardinals, Pittsburgh Pirates, and Cincinnati Reds.

Perini, in Rochester, would not disclose his offer but Antonelli's family said previously the Red Sox offered $50,000.

College Golfers Start Title Play

Palo Alto, Calif., June 30 (AP)—College golf had its 1948 national championship team decided today but 64 survivors of qualifying rounds were just ready to square off in the preliminary battles to determine the individual title.

The boys who made the grade from the original starting list of 141 paired off in the matches that will whittle down the field to the finalists Saturday when 51st singles will be crowned in a 36-hole links duel on the Stanford university course.

San Jose State college bagged the team title yesterday with a new national record total of 579 for the 36 holes of medal play. Morgan Fottrell, Jr., led the way, tying for individual medalist honors with a two-round 139.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Princeton, N. J., June 30 (AP)—Wyandotte, Mich., an industrial town near Detroit, also is a rowing town, and if Wyandotte's collection of high school kids should happen to win the Olympic crew trials here Bill Kreger probably would be elected to Congress.

Kreger, a big, soft-spoken man, is the Wyandotte boat club coach, a candidate for a congressional nomination and the guy who talked the city council into appropriating $12,000 to send the crew here. "We don't get college oarsmen; most of our boys don't even go to college, but we have the best heavy crew we have had in 20 years," Bill explains. "All of them are products of two local high schools and the oldest is only 20." "During the war we didn't have any older boys, so we concentrated on high school rowing," Kreger continues. "These kids have had from two to six years of experience and they're big (averaging five-foot-11 and 176 pounds). We may not beat Washington or Harvard, but we'll beat some of the crews here."

NASSAU NONSENSE
Eastern college athletic directors provided a big send-off Monday night for two of their retiring colleagues, Biff Jones of Army and Whitey Taylor of Navy. Biff is going into business in Washington, Whitey to headquarters in the Pacific.

Artie Moher, Yale shortstop just signed by the Tigers, is one of the Ell baseballers who started there when Red Rolfe, now Detroit farm head, was Yale coach. The Dodger's Bobby Bragan is tickled pink to get a job managing Fort Worth in a fast minor league instead of decorating the Brooklyn bench.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Hymie Caplin, who once retired trying to convert Black Jack Billy as a manager and went broke, is Fox into a heavyweight contender. It probably saved each college that has a crew in the Olympic trials 1,000 bucks when the tryouts were moved here from Philadelphia. The athletes are quartered and fed on the campus instead of in expensive hotels. Ky Ebright claims the real reason for the shift was that the mud in Philly's Schuylkill river got so bad that when a kid came out for rowing, they told him to try golf—in the same place.

Olympic Boxers Go To West Point

Boston, June 30 (AP)—The eight members of the 1948 U. S. Olympic boxing team—the cream of many thousands of fistic-minded youngsters screened all over the world—and their alternates headed for the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., today for two weeks of final polishing before sailing for England. The octet to survive through all of the final Olympic tryouts, which ended last night at the Boston Garden, was dominated by mid-westerners.

Half of the regulars who won berths on the glove team came from that section, two from Pennsylvania and one each from Florida and Utah. Last night's successful finalists picked for the team were: Flyweight Frank Sodona, 17-year-old Philadelphia national AAU titlist; bantamweight Bill Bossio, 20, of Pittsburgh and the U. S. Navy; Featherweight Edward Johnson, 20, of Kansas City and the U. S. Army; Lightweight Wallace Smith, 19, of Cincinnati; Welterweight Horace Her-ring, 24, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and the U. S. Navy; Middleweight Washington Jones, 22, of Lovejoy, Ill., and the U. S. Army; Light Heavyweight Charles Speizer, 18, of Detroit; Heavyweight Jay Lambert, 22, of West Jordan, Utah.

MATHIAS COMING EAST

Okla. City, June 30 (AP)—Bob Mathias, 17-year-old Tulsa, Calif., senior who won the Olympic Decathlon trials, will attend the University of Pennsylvania next fall. The young athlete's grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Mathias, said here today that his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Mathias, had written her of this decision.

NEW HAGERSTOWN MANAGER

Hagerstown, June 30 (AP)—Benny Culp, former catcher-coach for the Philadelphia Phillies, took over the managerial duties for the Hagerstown Owls in the Class B Interstate league last night. Culp succeeds Gene Crumling who remains with the club as a player.

BERNIE THRUSH HANOVER COACH

Bernard Thrush, who coached at Biglerville high school from 1932 to 1938, has signed to coach the Hanover high school basketball team and to supervise the basketball program in the Hanover schools.

Thrush, who enjoyed great success in coaching at Biglerville, Shamokin, Lebanon and more recently at Camp Hill high school, succeeds Hal Reese who has been named athletic director at Hanover.

He was graduated from Lebanon Valley college in 1932 and his first coaching job was at Biglerville high school where he started in the fall of '32. His football and basketball teams at the Adams county school were among the best in the area.

For one year, 1938-39, he was head coach at Shamokin high school and then in the fall of 1939 he moved to Lebanon where his team won the State championship in 1939-40.

Thrush moved to Camp Hill in 1945.

Pick Favorites In Wimbledon Finals

London, June 30 (AP)—Garnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., and Australia's John Bromwich are favored to win finals berths in the Wimbledon tennis championships today but their slight favoritism is built on the frail structure of reputation. Mulloy meets Bob Falkenberg, the rangy Hollywood, Calif., lad with the thunderbolt service. Bromwich opposes Hungarian Joss Asboth, who plays precision tennis on back court.

America's "big four" of women's tennis entered the semifinals of the tournament yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont, the defending champion, defeated Mrs. Jean Nicoll Bostock of Britain, 7-5, 6-3.

Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., defeated Mrs. Nellie Landry of France, 6-0, 6-2.

Mrs. Pat Canning Todd of La Jolla, Calif., ousted Jean Quertier of Britain, 6-2, 6-4.

Louis Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., won from Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, when Miss Fry turned an ankle after playing only four games.

First Round Starts In British Open

Muirfield, Scotland, June 30 (AP)—Jimmy Thomson, Los Angeles professional, and Frank Stranahan, Toledo amateur, led a contingent of nine American golfers into the first 18 holes of medal play today in the British open championship.

The close of the 36-hole qualifying round left 97 survivors for the final 72 holes of the tourney. Another 18 holes will be played tomorrow, after which the 40 low scorers advance into the final 36 holes Friday.

Thomson, the long-hitting California pro star who was born near Muirfield, was low for the American group. He shot a 75 yesterday, which gave him a 143 after his sparkling 68 of Monday.

Stranahan, who won the British amateur title recently and is aiming for a "little slam" in this meet, had a 70-75-145. He was runner-up in the British open in 1947.

Young And Old In Marquette Games

Milwaukee, June 30 (AP)—You're neither too young nor too old to compete in the national AAU track meet.

Entries for the 60th annual outdoor games Friday and Saturday at Marquette stadium range from veterans like Dave Albritton and Joe McCluskey to newcomers like Byrl Thompson, Oliver Matson and Gene Cole.

Matson, from San Francisco, and Cole, from Lancaster, O., are sprinters and quarter miles. Cole cracked the national interscholastic quarter mile record with a 48 seconds flat performance this spring, but Matson came along a few days ago with an amazing .47.1 as he finished second to Herb McKenley in his record-shattering .46 quarter.

Young Thompson is a college freshman who throws the discus. You haven't heard of him, maybe, because he happens to attend the University of Minnesota where Fortune Gordien also is in attendance. Gordien, of course, has thrown the discus 178 feet 11 1/2 inches for the year's best performance by a collegian. Thompson's not quite so good—his best is only 176 feet.

Huskies Picked To Win Olympic Trials

Princeton, N. J., June 30 (AP)—An east-west duel already is shaping up in the Olympic rowing trials although the races won't actually get underway until almost dusk today.

Backed by the knowledge that American college crews have won the Olympic eight-oared rowing title ever since Navy made the first effort in 1920 and that the last three Olympic champions have been Poughkeepsie regatta winners from the West Coast, most of the experts are picking the University of Washington.

The Huskies swept the river at Poughkeepsie last week and came here as the nation's only unbeaten varsity crew.

With eleven crews entered, representing nine colleges and two clubs, four trial heats were scheduled today. The winners will qualify for Friday's semi-finals and the losers will go into tomorrow's "Repechage" or second-trial heats. The repechage winners also will go into the semifinals, from which three crews will qualify for the final Saturday.

New Penn Coach Calls Job "Break"

Palo Alto, Calif., June 30 (AP)—Howard Dallmar, newly-selected head basketball and baseball coach at the University of Pennsylvania, today greeted the news of his appointment as "the best break of my life."

The big, blond San Franciscan, a former Stanford university basketball and diamond ace, is believed, at 26, to be one of the nation's youngest coaches of a major sport at a big school. He is unmarried.

For the last two seasons, he was a star guard of the Philadelphia Warriors of the Basketball Association of America.

"I've always had an ambition to coach some day, but I never expected anything like this to happen so soon," he said. "I'm anxious to get back east and get to work on my new job."

Dallmar said he would leave here in September for Pennsylvania, where he is to take over his new duties Sept. 15. He has been finishing up his work at Stanford toward a degree in the school of education.

Oxford, Pa., June 30 (AP)—Three youths from Conimicut, R. I., are being held here today after Police Chief Edward Patterson said they admitted stealing an automobile in Georgia.

Patterson identified those held as Stewart D'Arcy, 21; Earl Levesque, 18, and Raymond McMahon, 18. The police chief said he arrested the three after a 90-mile-an-hour chase when a gasoline station proprietor reported the trio drove off without paying.

Patterson said the youths are being held for investigation of their story that they stole a car in Brunswick, Ga.

PROSPECTS OF RR SETTLEMENT SEEM BRIGHTER

Washington, June 30 (AP)—Prospects for settlement of the lengthy rail dispute brightened today as the White House stubbornly pressed for action from a face-to-face meeting between union and management officials.

The heads of the three rail unions asking higher wages were brought together with the carrier representatives yesterday by Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman.

A four-hour session brought no immediate results, but it was believed that a definite settlement plan was being considered. Asked about chances for final agreement, Steelman told a reporter:

"I am not sure, but tomorrow we'll try again."

The three unions—barred by court order from stalling the government-operated railroads—were represented by Alvin Johnston for the engineers, David B. Robertson for the firemen and engineers and Arthur J. Glover for the switchmen.

Refused Increase
The three brotherhoods had threatened to strike May 11 after refusing to accept a 15% cent hourly pay boost agreed to by 18 other rail unions.

They wanted that figure raised—to a point now reported to be 16 or 17 cents higher—and they also asked certain rules changes which would mean still more money for their members.

A strike was headed off when President Truman took over the lines and gave control to the army. The government also asked—and got—a restraining order to keep the workers at their jobs.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough is due to decide Thursday morning whether to block off a walk-out by a permanent injunction.

BRITAIN ENDS 31-YEAR RULE OF PALESTINE

Haira, Israel, June 30 (AP)—The last British troops left the soil of troubled Palestine today, thus ending 31 years of British military occupation of the Holy Land.

In strict military order, the few remaining soldiers withdrew behind barbed wire barricades to troop ships and landing craft. British planes from an aircraft carrier task force buzzed overhead.

Lt. Gen. Gordon H. A. MacMillan, Britain's last military commander in Palestine, was the last British soldier to leave Palestine, in the evacuation which began on May 15.

He stepped aboard the ship's boat at 1:41 p. m., local time, just a few moments after the Union Jack was pulled down from the harbor office.

Col. Joseph Hoffman of Baltimore, Md., headed the group of United Nations truce observers who will supervise the big port during the U.N. truce period.

End Came Quietly
Trin guardsmen and green beretted marine commandos filed quietly aboard the ships, some moored to the same jetty where wailing Jewish refugees have been brought ashore in recent months for detention as illegal immigrants, while Eritan held the Palestine mandate.

The end of Britain's military rule came quietly, in strange contrast to the years of shooting and bombings.

In small groups, the marine commandos marched from their posts on Mount Carmel. Then they withdrew from the gates of the port until all that remained under British rule was a small barbed wire enclosure around the entrance of a landing ship through which filed the last British troops.

White-capped Jewish police took over the guard posts as the marines retired.

"It's a great day for us—one we've looked forward to for a long time," said Capt. Sucher Spiegel, who served in the British army's Jewish brigade during World War II and now is chief of Haifa port police.

Game Commission Given Vindication

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—The Dauphin county court ruled that the State Game Commission showed "proper discretion" in leasing a 15-acre tract in Cambria county for strip mining.

Judge J. Colvin Wright, of the Bedford county court, specially presiding, issued the ruling yesterday in dismissing an action brought by Alex C. Bailey, Phillipsburg; G. Ira Stott, William R. Taylor and Matt J. Belin, all of Smiltmill.

The plaintiffs had contended that the commission lost $66,000 in royalties by leasing the 15 acres in Reade township to Robert A. Williams, of Ramey.

The plaintiffs said if the commission instead had accepted their bid on a 75-acre tract in Cambria county it would have realized a royalty of 42.5 cents on each ton of coal mined.

Color In Streams Is Life Belt Dye

Harrisburg, Pa., June 30 (AP)—The state Health Department told Pennsylvanians today that if they spot odd colored water in streams not to be alarmed. Chances are, the department said, it is war surplus material.

The department added the liquid is believed to be harmless.

Today's Talk

ORIGINS

Beauty of character can be seen in the poorest and humblest of human beings. The lovely lotus flower, so beloved by the Orientals, springs to life from the mud. The oyster give forth its pearl, the earth and rocks their treasures of gold and precious stones. The flower its honey. The burning wood gives forth its nostalgic flames from the open fireplace.

From the deep bowels of the earth comes the oil that keeps millions of wheels turning, enabling us to enjoy the out-of-doors, giving to us pleasure, profit and health. And what beauty man has created from the trees of the forest! God gave to man a wonderful world, with everything in it to give him both happiness and sustenance. How tragic that he should use so many of these gifts to serve evil ends!

Out of many a sorrow and defeat comes so much that is significant. Brave and cheerful shut-ins, smiling — bodies that are broken and maimed, and rare characters that put us all to shame in our complacencies — with our inheritances that should make us thank God every hour of the day for our endless blessings. From suffering come the greatest patience, courage and hope. The poor often shame the rich by their happy acceptance.

Into an electric wire I throw my voice, and it talks that voice back to me. Will wonders ever cease? What is the origin of all this, unless it is the Voice of God talking to man, telling of what may yet be revealed, more wonderful than any dream? From the tiny cell comes life itself for man and beast. How significant the cry of the Psalmist as he looked into the heavens and the mystery beyond and questioned: "What is Man?"

Through faith alone are we transcended out of our sorrows and our heart hunger to a spiritual triumph that is the most significant experience in life — prophetic of what is beyond! In a way we are each a spark of light from millions of cells of life. All life is in us, and of us a part. We are one with the universe, and one with God.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Playground of Books."

The Poet of the People

SEASON'S END

Put away the yellow candles
And the cups with double handles.
Put away the shallow saucers
For the carrots and the peas.
Put away the bunting, splendid.
Now the banquet season's ended.
Put away the long head-table.
It is time to be at ease.

We are done with chicken winging.
Done with song sheets and the singing.

Done with picture-taking fellows
On their ladders towering high;
Done with women, young and older,
Ladling soup across your shoulder,
And the one who wants your ticket
Ere she passes you the pie.

Put away that grim loud speaker
Which turns out to be a squeaker;
And that list of willing workers
To be asked "to take a bow"
Send the makers of orations
On their annual vacations.
For the banquet season's over.
It's the picnic season now.

DEWEY LIMITED IN AMOUNT OF HOUSECLEANING

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 30 (AP)—If he's elected President, Thomas E. Dewey says, there'll be the "finest housecleaning Washington ever saw."

This may give the impression that the present swarm of people working for the government would be fired. That hardly seems likely.

You can see why from this: He could use the broom only in the executive branch of the government. The people working in the other two branches—judicial and legislative—are practically untouchable by any President.

For example, take the judicial branch—There are about 275 U. S. judges of all kinds and about 3,000 working under them, like court clerks.

Almost everyone of the judges now sitting on a bench has been appointed for life by President Truman or some previous President. So they're safe.

And the court employes have almost all been appointed by the judges, and they're beyond the Presidential touch.

Name New Judges
So Dewey as President would really be able to do only one thing in the judicial branch: appoint new judges as vacancies occurred.

Now take the legislative branch—Congress—Without counting the members of the House and the Senators, all of whom are elected by the people—has about 4,000 employes.

They include stenographers, clerks, secretaries, and others. The members of Congress hire them and the President, unless there are a couple of minor exceptions, has nothing to do with hiring or firing them.

That leaves only the people in the executive branch of the government—various departments and agencies—for Dewey to work on.

They number 2,048,000 everywhere: in Washington, the rest of the country and overseas.

Of that total 82 per cent, or 1,884,160, are civil service employes. The rest, 163,840, are non-civil service and have been appointed to jobs.

Right off the bat Dewey would be sure to replace the heads of the big departments, like Secretary of State, Agriculture, Labor and so on.

New Agency Heads
They are the members of the President's cabinet. Each President appoints his own cabinet which steps out when he retires.

Dewey, naturally, would appoint his own cabinet.

Then he could be expected to get rid of most, if not all, the heads of the independent government agencies—there are less than 100 such agencies—who were appointed by President Truman or President Roosevelt and did not come up through civil service.

Such agencies include the Mari-

Says He Was Paid "Tips" For Passports

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—Warren J. Belcher, 37-year-old former chief of the Philadelphia passport office, testified yesterday that he accepted $10 "tips" from a Chinese for handling passport applications on nearly 60 occasions.

Belcher testified he might have been guilty of "wrongdoing" by accepting the "tips." But he emphatically denied that he had been involved in any conspiracy.

Belcher said he had conferred with Griffin on some applications.

FELIX DU PONT, ILL WEEK, DIES

Rehoboth Beach, Del., June 30 (AP)—A. Felix DuPont, Sr., 68, industrialist, author and philanthropist, died yesterday at his summer home here a week after being stricken ill.

A director and former vice president of the E. L. DuPont de Nemours company, he started with the Wilmington company as private secretary to his father in 1900. In 1915, he and five others purchased the holdings of T. Coleman DuPont and started an expansion program.

Associated with him in that enterprise were P. S. Irene and Lamont DuPont, John J. Raskob and R. R. M. Carpenter. A. Felix DuPont was made vice president in 1919 and held that position until his retirement in 1944.

He and his sister, Mrs. Irene DuPont, founded the St. Andrews school for boys at Middletown, Del. He was a trustee of the University of Pennsylvania.

Athens, June 30 (AP)—The Greek General staff announced Tuesday a violent but unsuccessful attack by guerrillas a mile from the Bulgarian border. Mounting rebel losses during the last 24 hours were reported by army units conducting their major offensive to oust the guerrillas from their stronghold around Mount Grammos in Northwestern Greece.

time Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, and so on.

Then there'd be the special assistants to the department or agency heads who are not civil service people.

There are other non-civil service employes—like the chauffeur to a cabinet member or special secretaries to department heads—who'd be likely to go. The new department heads would pick their own people.

But even so the government has to be run. Good people willing to work for government salaries are not easy to find.

And Dewey, who has the reputation of being a good administrator, probably would be careful about firing good people doing a good job.

To Collect Clothes For Needy Children

St. Ignatius parish council of Catholic women held its regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon at Yeager's cottage, Pine Grove. The meeting was opened with prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel by the pastor, Rev. Fr. Louis J. Yeager. The president, Miss Catherine E. Miller, presided.

Miss Betty Hall, secretary, read the National president's message. It was decided that the month of August would be used to collect new clothing for the children in need.

These gifts will be given to the Pope from the Catholic Women of the United States for distribution in the war-torn lands. An invitation was extended to the parish council to attend the 24th National convention of the NCCW in New Orleans, in September.

A report of the Harrisburg Diocesan convention held in McSherrystown was given by the delegates, Mrs. Anne Cole Shields and Miss Miller. The annual report of the Conewago Deaneary was read by the president. A brief outline of the duties of the officers of the organization was also read.

The following committees were appointed for the year: Bishop's Fund, Mrs. Ernest Miller; Catholic Charities and Immigration, Mrs. Virgie Hall; Discussion Club, Miss Grace Kane; Family Parent Home Education, Mrs. James Cole; Hospitality, Mrs. Grace Kump; Inter-American Relations, Miss Betty Hall; Literature, Miss Betty Sharrar; War Relief Activities, Mrs. Shields; Public Relations, Miss Miller; Shrines in the Homes, Mrs. Evelyn Strasbaugh; Social Action, Mrs. Genevieve Oyler; Youth, Miss Betty Irvin.

Following the meeting a basket picnic was held. The meetings will be discontinued during July and August.

URGE GROWERS

of trees in various orchards throughout the four counties, relying on growers to permit them to use certain trees. With the new lab they will have their own orchards in Arendtsville on which to experiment.

Fine Research
County Agent Hartman added that "never before in the history of the county fruit growing industry has it been so necessary to have the finest possible research facilities. New problems and new materials are constantly being found and without a research laboratory we will not know just how safe and effective these new materials are, nor how adaptable they may be to our problems."

Hartman also reported on the National Apple institute meeting at Harrisburg recently, and added that "the fruit industry is big enough to stand on its own feet without seeking government aid. But to do that we must produce better quality fruit. There have been large quantities of poor apples sent out from this county, and it has hurt our business."

Predicts Large Population Boost

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—The eight-county Philadelphia-Camden industrial area can figure on a population of approximately 3,943,000 by 1980.

Edward Hopkinson, Jr., chairman of the Philadelphia city planning commission, said yesterday a report by his group showed a probable 25 per cent increase in population.

From 1980 until the close of the century the population growth "will either level off or possibly decline," the report said.

Included in the area are Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties in Pennsylvania and Burlington, Camden and Gloucester in New Jersey.

The adding machine was invented by a Frenchman in 1642.

Former Tax Cashier Charged With Thefts

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—Clifford H. Van Dyne, a former city tax cashier, was scheduled to be given a hearing today on a warrant charging him with embezzlement and fraudulent conversion.

A warrant was issued yesterday charging Van Dyne with the theft of $6,085 in city taxes while he was employed in the delinquent tax division of Receiver of Taxes W. Frank Marshall's office.

Both Marshall's office and that of the Department of Supplies and Purchases are under grand jury investigation in connection with the alleged shortage of $2,000,000 in amusement tax funds.

The Bering Strait is named after the Russian navigator who discovered it in 1728.

"Voice Of America"

Truths Advocated

South Hadley, Mass., June 30 (AP)—The state department director of the "Voice of America" says the United States information program must be "based on truth" even though it discloses unpleasant facts about America.

Assistant Secretary George V. Allen, discussing the state department's official radio at the Mount Holyoke college institute on the United Nations yesterday, said recent congressional investigation of broadcasts to Latin America served a useful purpose.

He added, however, that "we must present our civilization in its true color if we are to be effective."

Peking, June 30 (AP)—A movement against bombing of Chinese cities in the civil war was started here Tuesday by 122 university professors and students. They acted after the recent air attack by government planes on Kaifeng in Honan province. A large number of civilians were reported killed. One American professor, Robert Winter of Tsinghua university, joined in the protest of the bombing.

VOICE OF AMERICA
South Hadley, Mass., June 30 (AP)—The state department director of the "Voice of America" says the United States' information program must be "based on truth" even though it discloses unpleasant facts about America.

Assistant Secretary George V. Allen, discussing the state department's official radio at the Mount Holyoke college institute on the United Nations yesterday, said recent congressional investigation of broadcasts to Latin America served a useful purpose.

He added, however, that "we must present our civilization in its true color if we are to be effective."

Peiping, June 30 (AP)—A movement against bombing of Chinese cities in the civil war was started here Tuesday by 122 university professors and students. They acted after the recent air attack by government planes on Kaifeng in Honan province. A large number of civilians were reported killed. One American professor, Robert Winter of Tsinghua university, joined in the protest of the bombing.

per cent of normal. A consensus of the reports on peaches showed that the growers in general estimate they will have normal crops, with only four indicating they will have less than normal production. As for quality, the growers reported their peaches on the whole as much more free of stings, worms, rot and the like than last year. There is some brown rot present in most orchards and the growers hope to meet that with the wettable sulphur spray put on by most of them this week.

Threat to Cherries

The problem of oriental fruit moth and peach tree borer will be met with other sprays probably in mid-July, the growers were told. The cherry crop probably will have to be harvested in a hurry or not at all, the growers were told by Doctor Kirby. Pointing out the presence of various rots and other diseases, Kirby said "I advise you to watch your cherries. In some orchards cherries are not going to last very long, and where the fruit starts to go bad don't wait. I'd advise some growers to start picking now."

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—A hearing on a petition by William Goldman to force 11 big motion picture companies to give up ownership of movie theaters in the Philadelphia district was postponed indefinitely yesterday by Federal Judge William H. Kirkpatrick.

Judge Kirkpatrick said the case may not be rescheduled for hearing before the fall term of court.

Goldman, owner of a number of theaters in Pennsylvania, seeks an amendment to a decree handed down December 19, 1946. The decree awarded him treble damages of $357,000 and ordered an injunction requiring the major operators to allow him to compete with them for first-run feature films on a competitive basis.

Both Kirby and Pepper agreed that the disease and insect situation varies so much from orchard to orchard, and so many things have gone wrong that "it has become almost a question of deciding what you want to take a chance on."

Today's Talk

ORIGINS

Beauty of character can be scented in the poorest and humblest of human beings. The lovely lotus flower, so beloved by the Orientals, springs to life from the mud. The oyster give forth its pearl, the earth and rocks their treasures of gold and precious stones. The flower its honey. The burning wood gives forth its nostalgic flames from the open fireplace.

From the deep bowels of the earth comes the oil that keeps millions of wheels turning, enabling us to enjoy the out-of-doors, giving to us pleasure, profit and health. And what beauty man has created from the trees of the forest! God gave to man a wonderful world, with everything in it to give him both happiness and sustenance. How tragic that he should use so many of these gifts to serve evil ends!

Out of many a sorrow and defeat comes so much that is significant. Brave and cheerful shut-ins, smiling — bodies that are broken and maimed, and rare characters that put us all to shame in our complainings — with our inheritances that should make us thank God every hour of the day for our endless blessings. From suffering come the greatest patience, courage, and hope. The poor often shame the rich by their happy acceptance.

Into an electric wire I throw my voice, and it talks that voice back to me. Will wonders ever cease? What is the origin of all this, unless it is the Voice of God talking to man, telling of what may yet be revealed, more wonderful than any dream? From the tiny cell comes life itself for man and beast. How significant the cry of the Psalmist as he looked into the heavens and the mystery beyond and questioned: "What is Man?"

Through faith alone are we transcended out of our sorrows and our heart hunger to a spiritual triumph that is the most significant experience in life — prophetic of what is beyond! In a way we are each a spark of light from millions of cells of life. All life is in us, and of us a part. We are one with the universe, and one with God.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Playground of Books."

DEWEY LIMITED IN AMOUNT OF HOUSECLEANING

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 30 (AP)—If he's elected President, Thomas E. Dewey says, there'll be the "finest housecleaning Washington ever saw."

This may give the impression that the present swarm of people working for the government would be fired. That hardly seems likely.

You can see why from this: He could use the broom only in the executive branch of the government. The people working in the other two branches—judicial and legislative—are practically untouchable by any President.

For example, take the judicial branch—

There are about 275 U. S. judges of all kinds and about 3,000 working under them, like court clerks.

Almost everyone of the judges now sitting on a bench has been appointed for life by President Truman or some previous President. So they're safe.

And the court employees have almost all been appointed by the judges, and they're beyond the Presidential touch.

Name New Judges

So Dewey as President would really be able to do only one thing in the judicial branch: appoint new judges as vacancies occurred.

Now take the legislative branch—Congress—without counting the members of the House and the Senators, all of whom are elected by the people—has about 4,000 employees. They include stenographers, clerks, secretaries, and others.

The members of Congress hire them and the President, unless there are a couple of minor exceptions, has nothing to do with hiring or firing them.

That leaves only the people in the executive branch of the government—various departments and agencies—for Dewey to work on.

They number 2,048,000 everywhere: in Washington, the rest of the country and overseas.

Of that total 82 per cent, or 1,684,160, are civil service employees. The rest, 363,840, are non-civil service and have been appointed to jobs.

Right off the bat Dewey would be sure to replace the heads of the big departments, like Secretary of State, Agriculture, Labor and so on.

New Agency Heads

They are the members of the President's cabinet. Each President appoints his own cabinet which steps out when he retires.

Dewey, naturally, would appoint his own cabinet.

Then he could be expected to get rid of most, if not all, the heads of the independent government agencies—there are less than 100 such agencies—who were appointed by President Truman or President Roosevelt and did not come up through civil service.

Such agencies include the Mari-

SEASON'S END

Put away the yellow candles
And the cups with double handles,
Put away the shallow saucers
For the carrots and the peas.
Put away the building, splendid,
Now the banquet season's ended,
Put away the long head-table.
It is time to be at ease.

We are done with chicken winging,
Done with song sheets and the singing,
Done with picture-taking fellows
On their ladders towering high;
Done with women, young and older,
Ladling soup across your shoulder,
And the one who wants your ticket
Ere she passes you the pie.

Put away that grim loud speaker
Which turns out to be a squeaker;
And that list of willing workers
To be asked "to take a bow"
Send the makers of orations
On their annual vacations,
For the banquet season's over.
It's the picnic season now.

Says He Was Paid "Tips" For Passports

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—Warren J. Belcher, 37-year-old former chief of the Philadelphia passport office, testified yesterday that he accepted $10 "tips" from a Chinese for handling passport applications on nearly 60 occasions.

Belcher and former U. S. Commissioner Norman J. Griffin are being tried in Federal court on charges of conspiracy in passport frauds.

Belcher testified he might have been guilty of "wrongdoing" by accepting the "tips." But he emphatically denied that he had been involved in any conspiracy.

Belcher said he had conferred with Griffin on some applications.

County Agent, Hartman added that "never before in the history of the county fruit growing industry has it been so necessary to have the finest possible research facilities. New problems and new materials are constantly being found and without a research laboratory we will not know just how safe and effective these new materials are, nor how adaptable they may be to our problems."

Hartman also reported on the National Apple institute meeting at Harrisburg recently, and added that "the fruit industry is big enough to stand on its own feet without seeking government aid. But to do that we must produce better quality fruit. There have been large quantities of poor apples sent out from this county, and it has hurt our business."

To Collect Clothes For Needy Children

St. Ignatius parish council of Catholic women held its regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon at Yeager's cottage, Pine Grove. The meeting was opened with prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel by the pastor, Rev. Fr. Louis J. Yeager. The president, Miss Catherine E. Miller, presided.

Miss Betty Hall, secretary, read the National president's message. It was decided that the month of August would be used to collect new clothing for the children in need. An invitation was extended to the parish council to attend the 24th National convention of the NCCW in New Orleans, in September.

A report of the Harrisburg Diocesan convention held in McSherrystown was given by the delegates, Mrs. Anne Cole Shields and Miss Miller. The annual report of the Copewago Deamery was read by the president. A brief outline of the duties of the officers of the organization was also read.

The following committees were appointed for the year: Bishop's Fund, Mrs. Ernest Miller; Catholic Charities and Immigration, Mrs. Virgie Hall; Discussion Club, Miss Grace Kane; Family Parent Home Education, Mrs. James Cole; Hospitality, Mrs. Grace Kump; Inter-American Relations, Miss Betty Hall; Literature, Miss Betty Sharran; War Relief Activities, Mrs. Shields; Public Relations, Miss Miller; Shrine in the Homes, Mrs. Evelyn Strasbaugh; Social Action, Mrs. Genevieve Oyer; Youth, Miss Betty Irvin.

Predicts Large Population Boost

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—The eight-county Philadelphia-Camden industrial area can figure on a population of approximately 3,943,000 by 1980.

Edward Hopkinson, Jr., chairman of the Philadelphia city planning commission, said yesterday a report by his group showed a probable 25 per cent increase in population.

From 1980 until the close of the century the population growth "will either level off or possibly decline," the report said.

Included in the area are Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties in Pennsylvania and Burlington, Camden and Gloucester in New Jersey.

The adding machine was invented by a Frenchman in 1642.

Former Tax Cashier Charged With Thefts

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—Clifford H. Van Deyne, a former city tax cashier, was scheduled to be given a hearing today on a warrant charging him with embezzlement and fraudulent conversion.

A warrant was issued yesterday charging Van Deyne with the theft of $6,085 in city taxes while he was employed in the delinquent tax division of Receiver of Taxes W. Frank Marshall's office.

Both Marshall's office and that of the Department of Supplies and Purchases are under grand jury investigation in connection with the alleged shortage of $2,000,000 in amusement tax funds.

POUR SUPPLIES TO EARTHQUAKE AREA OF JAPAN

Fukui, Japan, June 30 (AP) — Relief supplies poured today into a 55-mile long strip of western Japan laid waste by a great earthquake that crumpled this city of 80,000 and left in ruins a score or more other towns.

Military government officials, granting that many bodies may never be found, stuck to an estimate of 3,155 dead and 7,250 seriously injured throughout the area.

(Occupation headquarters in Tokyo, however, on the basis of American medical workers' reports from the scene, put the recovered dead at 56, seriously injured at 1,600 and slightly injured at 4,000. It obviously did not include the 200 children reported by military government officers to have been crushed to death in a movie theater.

(Kyodo news agency reported from Fukui that police estimated total casualties would exceed 13,000 — 4,070 dead and 8,948 injured in Fukui prefecture and 39 dead and 190 injured in Ishikawa prefecture to the north.)

Level 48,000 Buildings
(The agency said 48,000 buildings and dwellings were destroyed in the two prefectures.)

Sleepless and weary, American and Japanese worked side by side looking for the dead and issuing food and medicine to the living. Long lines of Japanese men and women stood before emergency aid stations to be treated for injuries.

Fukui city, once a bustling silk manufacturing center, slowly was returning to life. Regular bus service was resumed between Takefu

The students raised the money for the trip by selling seeds, hot dogs and scrap paper, holding jamboree programs and similar activities during their four years in high school. Between six and eight square miles of the city were completely destroyed. A canal system through the city saved it from even greater fire destruction.

The city is still without electric lights, power, water, telephones and telegraph. Many persons raised shelters from bits of wreckage and tin.

Farmers Are Urged To Spray Tomatoes

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania farmers were urged today to spray their tomato and potato crops if they would prevent serious loss by blight.

This advice came from the State Agriculture department, which said that three consecutive weeks of rainfall have made conditions favorable for development of the plant disease.

The department at the same time said that threat of serious scab infection of apples continues, and urged spraying of orchards to protect new growth.

Seek To Settle Harvester Strikes

Chicago, June 30 (AP)—Company and CIO union officials arranged another meeting today in an attempt to settle a wage dispute which let to a strike at nine International Harvester company plants yesterday.

Federal conciliators kept the bargaining talks between company and union officials in progress to reach an agreement on retroactivity of a wage increase, which appeared the chief issue still in dispute.

The strike called by the CIO United Farm Equipment Workers union made idle more than 35,000 workers. Two of the company's plants at which the union is bargaining agent continued operations.

KILLED BY CAR

Milton, Pa., June 30 (AP)—William H. Aunkst, 56-year-old highway worker, of Watsonstown, was killed yesterday when struck by a car while flagging traffic at a road project on Route 14, four miles north of here.

and residences up and down two blocks.

"Complaints have been made by many people many times to the Greyhound managers, some of whom have made an honest attempt to correct conditions. However, they change frequently and apparently some of them encourage 'spite noises' when complaints are made."

"The authorities, too, have had it called to their attention but year after year the sleeping hours of the night are shattered by those who have no interest or concern in the welfare of our Gettysburg. Public opinion can do great things and perhaps if you could secure accounts from others who find the night noisier than day, our town fathers might be willing to insist that they be corrected."

We can cite another nuisance in this connection.

Greyhound bus drivers deliberately and persistently continue to block the alley entrance without any regard for the convenience or consideration of civilian motorists who use this alley daily.

On one recent occasion a Greyhound bus blocked the alley for more than 20 minutes.

Pea-Loaded Plane Skids 1,000 Feet

Malaga, N. J., June 30 (AP) — A DC-3 airplane, bringing a load of peas from Bloomsburg, Pa., to New Jersey firms for processing yesterday struck a 30-foot bank and slid 1,000 feet on its belly near the Sea Brook airport, state police reported.

The pilot, Anthony Oliver, 36, of Cragsmoor, N. Y., and the co-pilot, Andrew Terrigone, 31, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., — only occupants of the plane — escaped injury, state police said.

The plane, owned by the Atlantic Gulf Co., of Midland, N. J., was damaged.

Rheumatic Fever Patients To Get Aid

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—University of Pennsylvania's School of Medicine yesterday named Dr. John P. Hubbard of Washington, D. C., as assistant professor of pediatrics.

Dr. Hubbard also will direct a nation-wide program of the American Academy of Pediatrics for the improvement of child health and under the auspices of the state health department will conduct a rheumatic fever teaching program throughout the state.

His appointment is effective July 1.

They have been using Washington street as they see fit and nothing is ever done about it. However, let a civilian motorist violate any of the borough ordinances and... you guessed it!

Fairfield Fire Company To Hold Annual Bazaar And Homecoming Fete

AFFAIR OPENS
THURSDAY; TO CLOSE JULY 5

The Fairfield fire company will hold its 23rd annual summer bazaar and homecoming Thursday, and continue through July 5.

Held yearly over the fourth of July week-end the event usually attracts several hundred former Fairfield residents who take advantage of the holiday period to return to their former home to visit with old acquaintances, attend the bazaar and see how the town is progressing.

Actually the bazaar began more than 23 years ago. Stewart Sites, Jr., of the publicity committee pointed out today, but the war years caused a cessation of the popular event and the number of years it has been held is no longer the total number since the carnival's establishment in 1922.

Need Equipment

In preparation for the event the firemen and their fire engines were out visiting various homes in the community today to collect chickens, cakes and other donations made by the residents.

The money to be raised from the event will go towards several things, the firemen pointed out. For one thing there is the debt still owing on the community center which the fire company purchased within the past two years. For another, the company hopes to be able to buy some new equipment, particularly the type of chemicals which smother fires rather than drown them.

It was pointed out that in small fires located in places where it is difficult for the firemen to work, damage from the water that has to be pumped in order to get the fire under control is sometimes greater than the damage from the fire itself.

With more modern equipment, which would permit smothering of the fire with new chemicals the loss could, in some cases, be made much less.

Engage Two Bands

Two bands, the Blue and Gray of Gettysburg and the Waynesboro high school band will alternate in providing music for the evening sessions throughout the five-day affair. The Blue and Gray will play Thursday and Saturday while the Waynesboro band is scheduled for Friday and Monday concerts.

Soup and sandwiches are on the menu Thursday and Friday. Saturday a full course roast turkey supper will be served starting at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Monday evening a full course chicken dinner and supper will be served starting at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Union Service

A feature of the program will be a union service Sunday evening at the community hall at which the Rev. Wallace Fisher, of the history department of Gettysburg college, and a former pastor in the Pittsburgh area, will speak on the "Challenge of World Citizenship."

Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at 11 o'clock there will be free drawings for a ten-dollar prize. On Monday evening the grand prizes will be awarded.

Two baseball games are scheduled for Monday, with Gettysburg playing Fairfield at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and Bendersville combating the Fairfield squad at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The full course meals are to be served in the community building, while such refreshments as ice cream and soft drinks will be available on the grounds outside the hall. Tents are being secured to house games and other events scheduled to be held as part of the carnival.

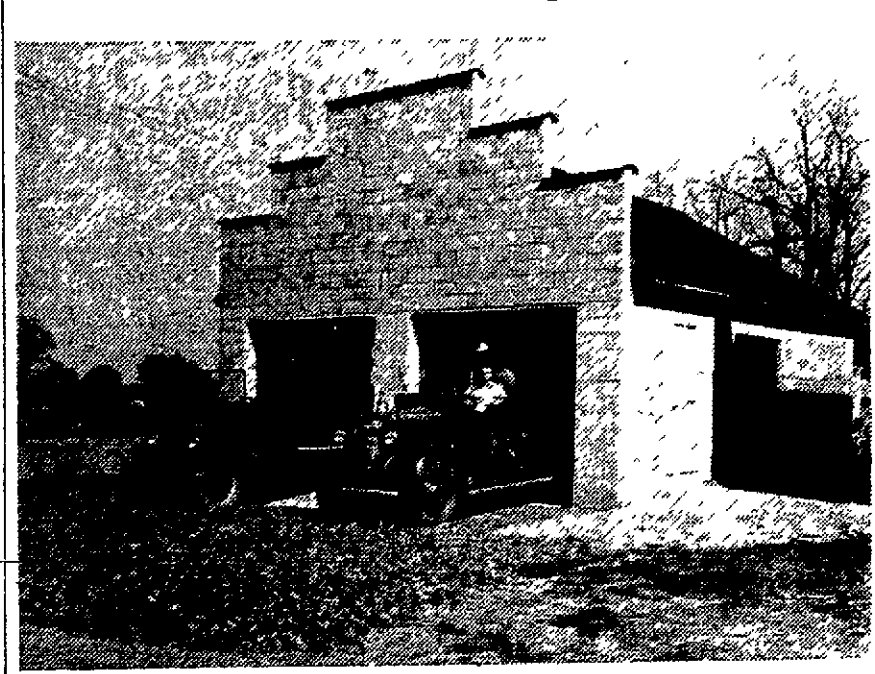

Dancing is also scheduled for the evenings.

Bazaar Committees

To light the outside grounds about the community center, the company has erected poles on which additional lights will be placed.

Paul Myers is general chairman for the event. Other committee chairmen include: Kitchen, J. S.

PENNSYLVANIA
DEMS TO BACK
PRES. TRUMAN

Harrisburg, June 30 (P) — President Truman has the endorsement of the Pennsylvania delegation to the Democratic national convention today but the action was not unanimous.

"It did not bind me," declared Mrs. Bertha Kehoe, of Somerset, the delegate who was first to object to the Truman resolution as "premature" at an organization meeting of the delegates yesterday.

The Keystone state's 16 delegates-at-large and 66 district delegates will have 74 votes in the national convention, opening in Philadelphia

July 12. Each delegate-at-large has a half vote.

The resolution endorsing Truman, Chairman John S. Rice said, merely expresses the sentiment of the delegation but "does not bind any delegate in the convention." He added the delegation will be polled at Philadelphia before any vote is cast.

Rice, of Gettysburg, was unanimously elected delegation chairman and these other officers also were named:

Mrs. Ruth Grigg Horting, of Lancaster, vice chairman; Miss Genevieve Blatt, of Harrisburg, secretary; and Joseph Lawler, of Scranton, assistant secretary.

Sen. Francis J. Myers and Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller were named the delegation's members on the convention platform committee and David McDonald, of Pittsburgh, to the credentials group.

Rice disclosed to newsmen that he has heard some sentiment for Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Democratic nomination as a vote-getter but that the Pennsylvania delegates generally are "Truman men." He added the Eisenhower sentiment came from persons who are not against Truman but believe the four-star general can "pile up votes."

Mrs. Kehoe said she was backing no particular candidate but that she wanted to go to Philadelphia with an "open mind."

R. R. Edwards, of Muncy, made a similar plea declaring from the floor "The consensus of opinion in my district is that the Pennsylvania delegation should go to the Philadelphia convention with an open mind rather than endorse the candidacy of President Truman."

Divided Opinion

Bertram Murphy, of Reading, an alternate delegate-at-large, insisted, however, that the president should be endorsed.

"The delegation will still be free to cast its votes as the situation develops," he added.

Henry Chapin, of New Hope, said Bucks county party workers had asked him to urge that the delegation be unpledged.

Rice said there will be no further meetings of the delegation until after the convention opens.

POUR SUPPLIES TO EARTHQUAKE AREA OF JAPAN

Fukui, Japan, June 30 (AP) — Relief supplies poured today into a 55-mile long strip of western Japan laid waste by a great earthquake that crumpled this city of 80,000 and left in ruins a score or more other towns.

Military government officials, granting that many bodies may never be found, stuck to an estimate of 3,155 dead and 7,250 seriously injured throughout the area.

Occupation headquarters in Tokyo, however, on the basis of American medical workers' reports from the scene, put the recovered dead at 56, seriously injured at 1,600 and slightly injured at 4,000. It obviously did not include the 200 children reported by military government officers to have been crushed to death in a movie theater.

Kyodo news agency reported from Fukui that police estimated total casualties would exceed 13,000 — 4,070 dead and 8,948 injured in Fukui prefecture and 39 dead and 190 injured in Ishikawa prefecture to the north.

Level 48,000 Buildings (The agency said 48,000 buildings and dwellings were destroyed in the two prefectures.)

Sleepless and weary, American and Japanese worked side by side looking for the dead and issuing food and medicine to the living. Long lines of Japanese men and women stood before emergency aid stations to be treated for injuries.

Fukui city, once a bustling silk-manufacturing center, slowly was returning to life. Regular bus service was resumed between Takaifu

FFA STUDENTS

We have ever seen" and also found the temperature there cooler than the warmth to which they returned here on Monday night. The mean temperature at Miami is 76.2 degrees they learned.

After visiting Tacoma Beach and St. Augustine, where they saw the oldest house and the oldest school in the United States, they returned to Biglerville by way of Jacksonville, Brunswick, Ga., Savannah, Ga., Richmond, Va. and Washington D. C.

The students raised the money for the trip by selling seeds, hot dogs and scrap paper, holding jambores and similar activities during their four years in high school. Each trip is decided upon by vote of the members who will make the trip. During the past two years the seniors on those occasions visited the western U. S. and Canada.

Farmers Are Urged To Spray Tomatoes

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania farmers were urged today to spray their tomato and potato crops if they would prevent serious loss by blight.

This advice came from the State Agriculture department, which said that three consecutive weeks of rainfall have made conditions favorable for development of the plant disease.

The department at the same time said that threat of serious scab infection of apples continues, and urged spraying of orchards to protect new growth.

and residences up and down two blocks.

"Complaints have been made by many people many times to the Greyhound managers, some of whom have made an honest attempt to correct conditions. However, they change frequently and apparently some of them encourage 'spite noises' when complaints are made.

"The authorities, too, have had it called to their attention but year after year the sleeping hours of the night are shattered by those who have no interest or concern in the welfare of our Gettysburg. Public opinion can do great things and perhaps if you could secure accounts from others who find the night noisier than day, our town fathers might be willing to insist that they be corrected."

We can cite another nuisance in this connection.

Greyhound bus drivers deliberately and persistently continue to block the alley entrance without any regard for the convenience or consideration of civilian motorists who use this alley daily.

On one recent occasion a Greyhound bus blocked the alley for more than 20 minutes.

Pea-Loaded Plane Skids 1,000 Feet

Malaga, N. J., June 30 (AP) — A DC-3 airplane, bringing a load of peas from Bloomsburg, Pa., to New Jersey firms for processing yesterday, struck a 30-foot bank and slid 1,000 feet on its belly near the Sea Brook airport, state police reported.

The pilot, Anthony Oliver, 36, of Cragmoor, N. Y., and the co-pilot, Andrew Terrigone, 31, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., — only occupants of the plane — escaped injury, state police said.

The plane, owned by the Atlantic Gulf Co., of Midland, N. J., was damaged.

YUGOSLAV REDS DEFIANT; MAY BE "SHOWDOWN"

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The alleged defection of Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito and his captains from the Red laws of the Moscow Kremlin still is surrounded with mystery, but this much is clear: There is a break at a strategic point in the Bolshevik western front!

This is the first serious setback of the kind which Russia has encountered among its slave states. The staid London Times, in an editorial headed "Tito called to heel," says, "nothing so apparently unlikely has happened for a long time, and nothing so destructive of Communist unity since the expulsion of Trotsky by the Bolsheviks."

We of course, shouldn't jump to the conclusion that Communism is on the verge of collapse. However, we are entitled to join in a hopeful smile along with the burners of midnight oil in the harassed chancelleries of the western democracies.

Slav Reds Stubborn

We have had a demonstration that the Bolshevik maginot line is vulnerable. That's the big news of the development. And your columnist was much interested to see the Yugoslav explosion come at a moment when he was telling you he believed Communism would blow up in due course. We may some day see "one world," but it never will be the Communist conception of a global federation of nations which have been shorn of all sovereignty and are ruled with an iron hand from Moscow.

The Yugoslav Communist party

last night showed its independence and defied the storm by rejecting the charges of the Moscow dominated cominform that Tito and his followers had departed from the Marxist line. European observers reported that the country appeared headed for a showdown with mighty Russia over the question of Tito's leadership.

Tense Moment

At the same time various unconfirmed reports (discounted in Belgrade dispatches) were going the rounds of Europe. One was that fighting was taking place inside Yugoslavia. Another had it that there were Soviet troop movements towards the Yugoslav capital of Belgrade. It was a tense moment.

This Tito debacle certainly isn't calculated to strengthen the Bolsheviks' hand in their effort to achieve a political coup in Germany by a food blockade which threatens some 2,000,000 Germans in the American-British-French zones of Berlin with hunger, if not starvation. General Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor, labeled this piece of despicable cruelty yesterday with the declaration that if the Russians persist in their blockade it will "constitute an act of ruthless inhumanity unparalleled in the history of the world."

A good many people are asking whether this atrocity is likely to result in war. I don't think so. As General Robertson says, the situation in Berlin is grave: "Grave not only for the people of Berlin, grave not only for the people of Germany—it is grave for the people of the world." However, there are no indications that the Muscovites intend to push the matter to the point of gunfire.

Pressure on Reds

The three democracies are facing the issue with firmness and determination, though without rashness. They are reported to be planning tough diplomatic moves to force Moscow's hand. They also discussed the question of the United Nations being asked to take a hand, but decided that further efforts should be made to settle the imbroglio by direct negotiations among the Big Four before calling in the peace organization. However, the Berlin city council asked the U.N. to intervene.

Meantime Britain in joining America in trying to break the land blockade by intensive flying of food-stuffs to Berlin. The whole nasty situation presents a picture which Moscow could take no pride in having framed for exhibition to future Russian generations in the National art gallery.

HOT WEATHER TAKES TOLL IN DROWNINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Rivers claimed the lives of nine persons as torrid weather sent thousands seeking relief at vacation spots.

Tommy Price, two-year-old son of Pittsburgh radio singer Howard Price, drowned in French Creek, a short distance from the Prices' summer home near Cochran, Crawford county.

The mother said Tommy climbed out of his playpen and strayed to the nearby creek. Cochran's firemen found the body in the stream near a boat landing. The child's father has been tenor soloist on the Bernie Armstrong program over station KDKA for a number of years.

Fourth Within Week

Edward Budal, 17, of West Milford, drowned while swimming in the Monongahela river near Dravosburg. Police and firemen used grappling hooks to recover the body in 10 feet of water about 40 feet offshore. Budal's death was the fourth by drowning in Allegheny county within a week.

William Kemmler, Jr., 14, of Verona, was on a camping trip near the Kennerdell tunnel along the Allegheny river. He was paddling around in eight or 10 feet of water when he went down.

Firemen yesterday found the body of Ronald Janicki, 11, of Johnstown, who drowned the day before in the Conemaugh river. The boy tumbled in the stream while trying to retrieve a ball bobbing in the water.

Kenneth E. Wertz, 17, of Gramplan, died Sunday because he tried another dip after an earlier rescue. Kenneth suffered a cramp while swimming in the Susquehanna's west branch. Marion Mencer, 26, of Gramplan, pulled him out. A few minutes later, Wertz said, "I'm all right," and went back in the water. He disappeared under the surface of the stream. His body was found yesterday.

The sixth victim, William R. Kahl, 38, of Andover, Ohio, died Sunday when his boat capsized in Lake Pymatuning. He had been fishing and was caught in a storm.

Lloyd Keinard, 14-year-old Baumstown resident, drowned yesterday when he accidentally fell into the water at the Daniel Boone homestead near Reading.

Brenda Crow, 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crow of Leesport, fell into a spring near her home and drowned last night.

Nine-year-old Harold Griffin, of Easton, drowned Monday while swimming off municipal beach. Firemen tried unsuccessfully to revive him after his body was recovered by friends.

NEED DIRECTOR TO HEAD STATE DRAFT PROJECT

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—The appointment of a state director was all that remained today to put Pennsylvania's draft machinery on a ready-for-action basis.

Gov. James H. Duff cannot name a director to administer in Pennsylvania the induction of young men 19 through 25, until he receives the go-ahead signal from President Truman.

Meanwhile, in another development, Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, said national guard and reserve officers will be called "to extended active duty" in the immediate future.

Weber said the announcement came from the army department at Washington.

May Start Aug. 16

He urged all interested officers to apply at once "so that their applications can be expeditiously processed and arrangements made for physical examinations."

Definite registration date for the draft still awaits selection by the National Selective Service headquarters, but Henry M. Gross, state director of the office of Selective Service records, mentioned Aug. 16 as a possibility.

Approximately 750,000 Pennsylvanians will be registered in the new draft. Gross predicted that 30,000 would be inducted in the first year starting Sept. 22. Inductees are subject to 21 months of training.

Gross said initial draft board plans call for establishment of 175 boards, consolidating the 422 which were active in World War Two. He said over 80 per cent of the members of the wartime boards said they would be willing to serve again.

WHEAT YIELD TO BE LOWER, REPORT SAYS

Condition of the winter wheat crop on Pennsylvania farms as of June 1 was such that the estimated yield per acre was set by farmers at 22 bushels, two less than the 1947 crop, according to Federal-State surveys announced by the State Department of Agriculture.

The wheat outlook on the first of the month was for a 1948 crop of 21,208,000 bushels compared with 22,296,000 harvested in 1947. The average, was 18,458,000 bushels for the 10 year period, 1937 to 1946. Rye is estimated to yield 15 bushels per acre, half a bushel less than last year.

Oats Better This Year

In general, the June 1 condition of other small grains and hay was reported below the same date in 1947 with the exception of oats which was rated as 84 per cent of normal. Last year was a poor oats year due to delayed planting and the June 1 condition then was only 72 per cent. Condition of barley on June 1 was 87 per cent compared with 88 a year earlier; all hay 87 per cent against 92 a year previous; pasture 90 per cent compared with 94 to June 1, 1947.

Small grains made moderate to good growth during May. By the first of June wheat was heading in the southeast where some rust appeared. A few stands were thin but generally the outlook was favorable. Most barley stands were good but some were thin due to dry weather at planting time.

RUSH WORK ON WATER MAINS

The Biglerville Water company is rapidly completing work on lines in the borough of Biglerville along the route of the main street of the town.

Workmen have been busy each day this week placing larger pipe where needed and making permanent connections so that the system will not have to be touched, barring an emergency, for the next five years.

When the water company has completed its work the state highway department plans to start rebuilding the Gettysburg-Carlisle road through the borough. The state plans to lay the road from curb to curb from one end of the borough to the other. It asked the borough council to direct the gas and water companies to so repair their mains that it will not be necessary to dig up the street to replace lines or mains for the next five years. The gas company has already completed its work.

While the streets are being repaved traffic will be detoured around the town.

Stocks Of Barley And Rye Higher

Stocks of barley and rye held on Pennsylvania farms on June 1 were larger than a year previous, according to Federal-State records announced by the State Department of Agriculture.

Barley holdings, at 528,000 bushels, represented 13 per cent of the 1947 crop. Stocks on June 1, 1947 totaled 473,000 bushels or 12 per cent of the previous year's crop, the Department said. Average holdings over the 10-year period, 1937 to 1946 were 11.1 per cent.

June 1 stocks of rye totaled 47,000 bushels or 17 per cent of last year's crop. This compares with only 6 per cent of a year earlier and the average of 17.4 per cent.

Poultryman Breaks Pullets Of Sitting

Pullets of the heavy breeds often sit at dusk on the floor around the entrance to the range shelter and range colony houses, and unless the habit is broken, prevent other birds from getting to their sleeping quarters.

County Agents M. T. Hartman and Ira N. Dummire tell of one county poultryman who solved the problem by placing mash hopper reels in the shelter about 10 inches above the floor and about 30 inches beyond the entrance. As the birds attempt to roost on the reels they lose their balance, and in falling to the floor stir up a commotion which tends to chase other birds from the entrance to their regular roosts.

Egg Production Breaks Records

Pennsylvania farm flocks set an all-time record for the month of May when they produced 307,000,000 eggs, the State Department of Agriculture announced today following Federal-State production surveys.

The new record for May is one million eggs more than the previous high for the month, established in May 1947. The new mark was made in spite of heavy culling of farm flocks to weed out poor layers, the Department said. The number of layers at 16,489,000 was about the same as May 1947 but eight per cent below the April average. However, the average of 18.6 per 100 hens was the highest on record for any month.

Seasonal decline in egg production started in April. Output for May was down 21,000,000 from the previous month, the survey showed.

STILL TIME TO PLANT GARDENS

Succession cropping, because it permits harvesting a maximum of vegetables from any given area of ground, is being practiced in many home gardens in Adams county report County agents M. T. Hartman and Ira N. Dummire.

As peas are harvested the vines can be pulled and carrots or beets, or both can be sown for fresh fall vegetables, and for winter storage. Kale for fall and winter use can be sown in early July. Where spinach, mustard, lettuce, or other vegetables have been harvested, sweet corn (suited for late planting) and other garden crops may be planted. Endive, Chinese cabbage, and head lettuce can be sown up to August 1, either in the row where the vegetable is to grow or in plots to produce plants for transplanting about September 1.

Late June is still time to set out late tomatoes and peppers. Bush beans can be planted for two or three weeks, and the plants will produce a continuous supply of tender pods. Late cabbage is one of the vegetables which require more garden space than others. It produces a crop after

Dairy Cows Hit New Price Levels

Prices paid by farmers for dairy cows have reached the highest point ever known, an average of $220 per head, the State Department of Agriculture said today in reporting milk production for the State during May was 544,000,000 pounds, one per cent below the same month last year.

Milk cow prices reached $215 per head in January, dropped to $208 in February and advanced to $211 in March and April. Federal-State records revealed. Officials explained the advance is in keeping with climbing prices for all livestock and reflects the unprecedented demand for beef animals. Mixed dairy feed prices showed no change between April 15 and May 15.

May milk production showed a seasonal increase of 14 per cent over April. Peak of production is expected for June. The estimated number of cows on Pennsylvania farms during May was 949,000 compared with 958,000 in May, 1947.

The other plants are gone. It supplies plenty of fuel and vitamins, and can be stored and kept for use or made into kraut.

WORKMEN START ON NEW SCHOOL

The North Adams Joint school system has already started construction on the four-room addition to its high school building at York Springs. It was learned today.

Workmen are engaged on the foundation and will soon start on the walls of the two-story structure which they hope to have completed by October in time for use by the system during the next school year. The system plans to utilize present facilities for the first month of the new school year until the annex is completed.

Bonds of Huntingdon township and Latimore township, proceeds from which will go toward paying for the addition, were sold last week with the York Springs bank purchasing the approximate $8,400 worth of Huntingdon bonds and a Dillsburg bank purchasing the approximate $7,000 worth of Latimore bonds. The approximate $9,000 worth of York Springs bonds were sold previously.

All three of the districts involved in the North Adams jointure, which comes into existence Thursday, sold bonds in proportion to their size in order to raise the $25,000 needed to complete the work of building. The three boards have been operating as a jointure for several months in preparation for the formal legal beginning scheduled for Thursday.

The average adult heart is about five inches long and three and a half inches wide and weighs ten ounces.

YUGOSLAV REDS DEFIANT; MAY BE "SHOWDOWN"

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The alleged defection of Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito and his captains from the Red laws of the Moscow Kremlin still is surrounded with mystery, but this much is clear: There is a break at a strategic point in the Bolshevik western front!

This is the first serious setback of the kind which Russia has encountered among its slave states. The staid London Times, in an editorial headed "Tito called to heel," says, "nothing so apparently unlikely has happened for a long time, and nothing so destructive of Communist unity since the expulsion of Trotsky by the Bolsheviks." We of course, shouldn't jump to the conclusion that Communism is on the verge of collapse. However, we are entitled to join in a hopeful smile along with the burners of midnight oil in the harassed chancelleries of the western democracies.

Slav Reds Stubborn
We have had a demonstration that the Bolshevik maginot line is vulnerable. That's the big news of the development. And your columnist was much interested to see the Yugoslav explosion come at a moment when he was telling you he believed Communism would blow up in due course. We may some day see "one world," but it never will be the Communist conception of a global federation of nations which have been shorn of all sovereignty and are ruled with an iron hand from Moscow.

The Yugoslav Communist party

last night showed its independence and defied the storm by rejecting the charges of the Moscow dominated cominform that Tito and his followers had departed from the Marxist line. European observers reported that the country appeared headed for a showdown with mighty Russia over the question of Tito's leadership.

Tense Moment
At the same time various unconfirmed reports (discounted in Belgrade dispatches) were going the rounds of Europe. One was that fighting was taking place inside Yugoslavia. Another had it that there were Soviet troop movements towards the Yugoslav capital of Belgrade. It was a tense moment.

This Tito debacle certainly isn't calculated to strengthen the Bolsheviks' hand in their effort to achieve a political coup in Germany by a food blockade which threatens some 2,000,000 Germans in the American-British-French zones of Berlin with hunger, if not starvation. General Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor, labeled this piece of desperate cruelty yesterday with the declaration that if the Russians persist in their blockade it will "constitute an act of ruthless inhumanity unparalleled in the history of the world."

A good many people are asking whether this atrocity is likely to result in war. I don't think so. As General Robertson says, the situation in Berlin is grave: "Grave not only for the people of Berlin, grave not only for the people of Germany—it is grave for the people of the world." However, there are no indications that the Muscovites intend to push the matter to the point of gunfire.

Pressure on Reds
The three democracies are facing the issue with firmness and determination, though without rashness. They are reported to be planning tough diplomatic moves to force Moscow's hand. They also discussed the question of the United Nations being asked to take a hand, but decided that further efforts should be made to settle the imbroglio by direct negotiations among the Big Four before calling in the peace organization. However, the Berlin city council asked the U.N. to intervene.

Meantime Britain in joining America in trying to break the land blockade by intensive flying of foodstuffs to Berlin. The whole nasty situation presents a picture which Moscow could take no pride in having framed for exhibition to future Russian generations in the National art gallery.

HOT WEATHER TAKES TOLL IN DROWNINGS

(By The Associated Press)
Rivers claimed the lives of nine persons as torrid weather sent thousands seeking relief at vacation spots.

Tommy Price, two-year-old son of Pittsburgh radio singer, Howard Price, drowned in French Creek, a short distance from the Prices' summer home near Cochranton, Crawford county.

The mother said Tommy climbed out of his playpen and strayed to the nearby creek. Cochranton firemen found the body in the stream near a boat landing. The child's father has been tenor soloist on the Bernie Armstrong program over station KDKA for a number of years.

Fourth Within Week
Edward Budal, 17, of West Milford, drowned while swimming in the Monongahela river near Dravosburg. Police and firemen used grappling hooks to recover the body in 20 feet of water about 40 feet offshore. Budal's death was the fourth by drowning in Allegheny county within a week.

William Kemmler, Jr., 14, of Verona, was on a camping trip near the Kennerdell tunnel along the Allegheny river. He was paddling around in eight or 10 feet of water when he went down.

Firemen yesterday found the body of Ronald Janisko, 11, of Johnstown, who drowned the day before in the Conemaugh river. The boy tumbled in the stream while trying to retrieve a ball bobbing in the water.

Kenneth E. Wertz, 17, of Gramplan, died Sunday because he tried another dip after an earlier rescue. Kenneth suffered a cramp while swimming in the Susquehanna's west branch. Marion Mencer, 26, of Gramplan, pulled him out. A few minutes later, Wertz said, "I'm all right," and went back in the water. He disappeared under the surface of the stream. His body was found yesterday.

The sixth victim, William R. Kahl, 38, of Andover, Ohio, died Sunday when his boat capsized in Lake Pymatuning. He had been fishing and was caught in a storm.

Lloyd Keinard, 14-year-old Baumstown resident, drowned yesterday when he accidentally fell into the water at the Daniel Boone homestead near Reading.

Brenda Crow, 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crow of Leesport, fell into a spring near her home and drowned last night.

Nine-year-old Harold Griffin, of Easton, drowned Monday while swimming off municipal beach. Firemen tried unsuccessfully to revive him after his body was recovered by friends.

NEED DIRECTOR TO HEAD STATE DRAFT PROJECT

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—The appointment of a state director was all that remained today to put Pennsylvania's draft machinery on a ready-for-action basis.

Gov. James H. Duff cannot name a director to administer in Pennsylvania the induction of young men 19 through 25, until he receives the go-ahead signal from President Truman.

Meanwhile, in another development, Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, said national guard and reserve officers will be called to extended active duty in the immediate future.

Weber said the announcement came from the army department at Washington.

May Start Aug. 16
He urged all interested officers to apply at once "so that their applications can be expeditiously processed and arrangements made for physical examinations." Definite registration date for the draft still awaits selection by the National Selective Service headquarters, but Henry M. Gross, state

director of the office of Selective Service records, mentioned Aug. 16 as a possibility.

Approximately 750,000 Pennsylvanians will be registered in the new draft. Gross predicted that 30,000 would be inducted in the first year starting Sept. 22. Inductees are subject to 21 months of training.

Gross said initial draft board plans call for establishment of 175 boards, consolidating the 422 which were active in World War Two. He said over 80 per cent of the members of the wartime boards said they would be willing to serve again

EXPECT SOME RELIEF FROM HOT WEATHER

(By The Associated Press)

The weather story in many portions of Pennsylvania today was a continuation of yesterday's three H's—hot, humid and horrible.

Some relief was expected later today, however in the form of thunder-showers, the weather man said.

The 95 reached at Philadelphia yesterday was the hottest experienced in that city since July, 1946. The high reported at Harrisburg was 97, hottest day of the year at the state's capital. Pittsburgh reported a high of 90 just before a thunderstorm broke a three-day siege of hot, humid weather.

Street Bathing

In Philadelphia, city officials warned of a water shortage if persons seeking relief from the heat continue to use fire hydrants illegally.

Elbert J. Taylor, chief of the Water bureau, said thousands of homes were almost without water pressure last night because an estimated 800 hydrants were opened during the day to provide street bathing for hot youngsters.

Five deaths were recorded in Philadelphia as directly attributed to the heat. Two persons died of heat exhaustion, two persons drowned and a fifth fell from a roof after apparently collapsing while at work. Four others suffered heat prostration.

The storm that broke the heat wave at Pittsburgh brought with it winds up to 52 miles an hour. The temperature at the Pittsburgh airport dropped from 90 to 67 within a few hours.

Throughout the state the humidity was expected to drop late today with an accompanying decline in temperature.

Helium is now used to inflate airplane tires and to treat respiratory diseases.

Whisky is not an antidote for poisonous snake bite, despite a widespread belief to the contrary.

Plane Brings Serum For Rattlesnake Bite

Lock Haven, Pa., June 29 (AP)—Eight-year-old Judith Heverly, bitten by a rattlesnake, was reported in good condition Tuesday at the Lock Haven hospital thanks to a quick airplane trip to Williamsport for serum.

The girl was bitten on the right knee Monday while picking berries near her home about 12 miles from Lock Haven. She was taken to the hospital but it was found there was no anti-venom serum on hand.

The girl's uncle, Kenneth Heverly, who learned to fly under the GI Bill of Rights, quickly arranged with a Williamsport drug firm for a supply of the serum, and flew the 60-mile round trip in a light plane for it. The girl received the serum about three hours after she was bitten.

World War I Bonus Runs Out On July 1

Harrisburg, June 30 (AP)—The Department of Military Affairs said today World War One veterans have a last chance to qualify for a share in the $50,000,000 bonus enacted in 1934.

Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, said an estimated 38,000 veterans never filed an application for the payment of $10 for each month's service with a maximum of $200.

Unless they do so by midnight Thursday, July 1, they will have no further chance, Weber said.

The 1945 legislature extended the deadline for the fifth and last time to that date.

HILL CITY TO BE ABANDONED; LACK OF FUNDS

Pittsburgh, June 30 (AP)—Hill City, the self-governing youth municipality that aroused interest of sociologists throughout the nation, is about to die for lack of funds.

Howard C. McKinney, founder and first director of the little city within-a-city, said the organization must close its doors July 31 unless immediate financial aid is received.

McKinney and an assistant are paid by the city's Friendly Service Bureau but the work has been kept going entirely on volunteer contributions.

Hill City was organized formally in 1939 as a self-governing youth group in Pittsburgh's teeming hill district — one of the city's toughest and poorest neighborhoods.

The organization has its own mayor, councilman, judges and a full complement of municipal jobs. Youths accused of crimes are brought before their own judges who decide the penalty they must pay.

In the ten years of its existence, Hill City has been credited with cutting down juvenile delinquency, truancy and petty crimes. Police, merchants and civic leaders have been loud in their praise of the movement which they said saved the city thousands of dollars by preventing crime.

Sociologists came from most major cities to find out what made it tick. It was hailed as an innovation in working with young people.

"Hill City has been a father and mother to countless children of the area who look to it for guidance not available at home," J. Allen Figurel, principal of the Letsche school, declared today.

"Gangs and gang fights are things of the past since its formation and the hoodlumism which was evident disappeared."

But as Hill City settled down to its established routine of providing recreation and positive citizenship training, the public financial interest that kept it going dwindled to the vanishing point.

Howard McKinney is discouraged but he still retains a spark of hope that public support will be found to continue the little city that has given youths a new prospect for law and order.

PERU FACING ACUTE CRISIS

Lima, Peru, June 30 (AP)—President Jose Luis Bustamante Rivero declared on Tuesday that Peru is in a state of "acute national crisis." He said he will assume extraordinary powers to rule by decree.

Speaking in a nationwide broadcast, he said political tension in Peru has become "dangerous" and said there are indications that "something violent and obscure is being hatched at the bottom of the political strata."

The President said he would not convene Congress for its customary annual session July 28 because of a decision by 21 independent senators to boycott the session, as they did in 1947, thus causing an automatic parliamentary recess.

This decision, President Bustamante said, creates a problem for the nation which cannot be solved by constitutional means. It means, in effect, that the country has no legislative branch of government. Therefore, he told the people, he is ready to assume extraordinary powers to issue such decrees and laws as are necessary. He also intends to take steps for formation of a modern political party to help solve the nation's problems. He promised continuation of a democratic way of life.

The President left the way open for Congress to call itself into session if it wished to do so, but declared he would not intervene.

The linotype machine was invented in 1885 by Ottmar Mergenthaler of Baltimore.
